National President's Notes

Glenn G. Woodhatch

OUR OLYMPIC TEAM

Congratulations must go to our selected Olympic Team of Deserie, Michael, Russell, Lisa, David, Clive, Natasha and Anne Maree. With them and the team officials go our very best wishes on a successful event.

RANGE APPROVALS

With the establishment of the National Firearms Laws one would have thought that the guidelines for range approvals around Australia would have been identical. Information is that safety margins and distances are varying from State to State and all the blame apparently cannot be directed to police departments or bureaucrats.

It appears that in some States bodies calling themselves the "peak body" for shooting have had significant input into range guidelines for all disciplines and these "bodies" do not, or have not, a representative of our State Clay Target Associations. Surely in each State it would be reasonable to expect the State Clay Target Association would be the only body consulted in ACTA disciplines. I hope that we can address and resolve this issue to the satisfaction of all very quickly.

NATIONAL OFFICE OFFICIAL OPENING

The official opening of the National Office during our Nationals was very well attended and went off without a hitch. Those who did attend enjoyed the BBQ and musical entertainment afterwards and many have requested that each year during the Nationals the ACTA should conduct such an evening for the benefit of shooters and their families. This is certainly a possibility and will be discussed at our next Executive meeting.

SYDNEY WORLD CUP

The heavens opened when the first members of the seventy-four strong Australian team arrived in Sydney for the World Cup in late March. There had already been several days of torrential rain before our arrival. Consequently, quagmire conditions prevailed at the Sydney International Shooting Complex and at least one truck was bogged, providing everyone with some entertainment while they watched the poor driver try to dig it out.

After the first few days the weather became progressively better and eventually became quite hot. So much so, that a red bellied black snake decided to come out and sun itself daily on the rock wall on the Clay Target Range. This entertainment lasted for several days while volunteers and police decided how to deal with the reptile. Eventually, at great risk to life and limb, someone managed to get it into a box and it was re-located.

Unlike the Oceanias where food supplies were limited, at the World Cup, a dining tent for teams was provided with a continuous supply of hot meals, drinks and other goodies. A coffee van on the Clay Target Range was also very well patronised.

The team was accommodated at the Country Comfort RSL Resort at Rooty Hill. There was universal approval of this venue, not least because the meals were so good and so cheap at the adjacent RSL Club. Especially happy with the accommodation was team Masseur, Darien Roach who, on the first night found himself in a four-poster double bed with a spa bath in the bathroom. When he was moved on the second night, he thought he was coming down out of the clouds to be with the rest of us peasants. Lo and behold, he got what we called the "penthouse suite" because the room was not only larger and equally luxurious, but this room had the spa bath in the corner of the bedroom! The good Doctor and I, when we inspected his palatial suite, decided that it was really a more suitable abode for a Manager and a Doctor, but relented when Darien begged and pleaded to stay there (only joking, Darien).

Because the Country Comfort was an official hotel, buses ran regularly between there and the Range and I heard few if any complaints about this system.

Deserie Wakefield-Baynes, third in women's trap.

The shooting was extremely interesting with a very high standard evident from the 85 countries present and Australian team members, for the most part, did themselves proud.

There was some drama on the official training day for Mens Trap when the bolts let go and one of the traps fell off the wall, fortunately without injuring anyone. This put that layout out of action for the day but repairs were effected and bolts on all other machines tightened before the next day's shooting. There were no further incidents of this nature.

Several team members were not only coping with the pressure of the competition but also with the pressure of personal traumas with ill family members or, in the case of Tom Turner, a car accident on the way to the Range on the day of his second round of Trap. This would have seriously shaken him and explains why his second round did not match his first day's result when he shot a fine 74. Michael Diamond made the Final in this event but found the going tough finishing sixth. Michael was quoted in the media as saying that he was feeling the pressure of a hometown event. All other Australians interviewed echoed this feeling. Clearly there is a need for more training in this area.

A media centre was on site where journalists, mostly from the print media, were based. The interest in the Australian team was high with many media representatives, including those not on site, wanting to interview the better known team members almost on a daily basis. I personally fielded about a dozen calls in the first few days and other team members received calls as well. It was difficult for Michael and Russell in particular to move more than 20 metres without being stopped by media or well wishers from volunteers and spectators. This a result of the way the Range is designed, as it is necessary for shooters to move through the public area to reach the layouts.

As far as possible, we tried to protect team members from excessive media interest by asking journalists to approach coaches first and certainly not to approach shooters until the competition and Final had concluded. For the most part this request was respected. Media were also advised that once the Olympic team is selected they would be able to come to the final training camp at the end of July and interview and photograph to their hearts content. During the competitions there were daily write-ups in both local and interstate papers. It was good to see such positive publicity about the shooting sports.

Womens Trap was a well-fought out event between Deserie Wakefield-Baynes and Lisa Smith. Both made the Final with identical scores of 67, but experience won the day with Deserie coming out on top with the bronze medal leaving Lisa a disappointed fourth. Nessa Jenkins was not too far away on 63 in eighth place. MQS shooter Suzie Balogh achieved an excellent 71, which was equal top score on the Range. French girl, Delphine Racinet, was a delight to watch, giving a fine demonstration of her skills and walking away with the gold medal and a Finals World Record 95 in this event.

Deserie made the Final in the Womens Double Trap as well but regrettably slipped from fourth to sixth, while Annemaree Roberts just missed out on the Final in a shootoff, finishing seventh.

The greatest excitement was in the Mens Double Trap where Russell Mark made his "mark" by winning the gold medal in fine style. He went in with a margin of three targets up his sleeve and knew by the time the last few targets were in the air that he could not be beaten. Just to give the crowd a thrill, he caused a huge gasp when he missed by a country mile both targets in his second to last pair. To prove he could still hit them, he then smoked the last pair! Michael Diamond shot 138 in the same event but was, regrettably, penalised three targets for missing a squad - a hard lesson to learn as Michael himself said. Stephen Haberman is also to be congratulated for his MQS shoot of 138, which was up to Finals standard.

In the Skeet events, Natasha Lonsdale increased her MQS level from 65 to 67, placing tenth, while Clive Barton made the Final. He managed fifth, in spite of a debilitating stomach upset, which the American team doctor was kind enough to treat on the morning of the second day of Skeet competition. David Cunningham was a creditable ninth in a very strong field of 70 competitors shooting in almost ideal weather conditions.

Coaches, Greg Chan and Luca Scribani Rossi were ever-present giving support and advice to their shooters. It was a privilege to work with them and I wish to thank them for their contribution to the team. As always, Darien Roach worked hard for the shooters who called on his massage skills both at the Range and in the evening at the hotel.

AUSTRALIAN SHOOTERS ENJOY VISIT TO KIWI NATIONALS

Canterbury Gun Club, Christchurch were the host of the 2000 New Zealand National Championships held at the beginning of March.

Victorious Glenn Cup Team (L—R) Glenn Woodhatch (Manager) Phil; Headon, Bill Iles, Steve Haberman, Arthur Turner and David fox.

Winners of the Winchester Championship. Steve Atkins — Overall, Steven Parks — Junior and Peter Streuber (USA) — Veterans.

In excess of 40 shooters, along with family members, made this years Australian representation the largest for many years.

Our current World Championship team of Phil Headon, Bill Iles, David Fox. Steve Haberman and Arthur Turner were also the team to contest the Glenn Cup event.

With the exception of 1 day, the weather was not what we have come to expect on visits to New Zealand in that sun shone brightly throughout the championships. The grounds were excellently presented, the hospitality was even better and I was not aware of one genuine complaint about anything from anyone. What more could you want at such an event.

We were away to a brilliant start with Queenslander Dave Dundon winning the first National event - the skeet with a score of 150/150. Other Australians to show out were Mal Briggs (1st AA), Jon Whittakers (the old fox .2nd in A), Glen Castelar (1st in C...somehow I am of the opinion that with a 100+ break, he will not be in C grade should he return to NZ) and Toni Dierke being victorious in the ladies section Australia also were the winners of the 5 person team event. Max Barton, Guy Beddington, Arthur Dierke, Toby Witt and Dave Dundon.

Queensland were to keep the pressure on again in the next championship with veteran shooter Bill Stevens carding the only possible 50/50 in the Ball Trap - the only way to win a National title. Steven Parks started his campaign in the Junior section with a fine win and our only other placegetter was Bryan (Cats) Rafferty with 3rd in AA.

On to the Double Rise Championship and champion Bill Iles was to add the first of two 2000 kiwi titles to his impressive trophy 'cupboard'. Bill shot a score of 38/40 to take the HOA honours. I never believed it possible, but Bill seems to be shooting as well now as he ever has. Our other winners were Steve (Corvette) Atkins and David Fox, 1st and 2nd respectively and Tim Catling being the best veteran

With 3 titles gone and still no home country winner, host club member and tireless worker, Gavin Searle said enough is enough. We have to do something - and something he did do. Winning the minis championship with a score of 27/27. Our only competitor to grace the winners dais was David Fox with 2nd in AA.

Bill Iles second HOA was to be the Triples Championship recording 100/100. In AA Sam Forsyth took out 2nd with Arthur Turner 3rd, Tim Catling was 2nd in A and 1st in Veterans and Steven Parks was the best Junior.

Gavin Searle again looked at the way things were going in relation to kiwi pride and said if Bill can do it, so can I. Gavin was also to add a second HOA in the week to his bag by winning the Single Rise shooting 300/300. Our top shooters were Terry (Barzurk) Boucher and Arthur Turner 2nd and 3rd AA and again Steven Parks showed that he is a junior with a future by winning the junior section.

The Single Barrel was the next title contested and again New Zealand came out on top with Keith Livingstone with the only 50/50. Jon Whittakers and Tony Schaefer were to finish 1st and 2nd in AA and Tim Catling continued his good form winning 2nd place in A grade

The last title up for grabs was the Pointscore and Steve Haberman recorded the only 150/150 to give him the top spot. Our only other prize winner was Sam Forsyth taking 2nd placing in AA

The Glenn Cup Team event was conducted in excellent atmosphere in front of a large crowd and our team demonstrated why it is the current best in the world by not dropping a target. A great exhibition of shooting appreciated by all watching. Well done Australia.

We were also to take our fair share of the High Guns with Bill Iles AA Tim Catling both A grade and Veterans and Steven Parks winning the Junior title.

Toni Dierke, winner of the Ladies N.Z. Skeet Championship.

Bill Iles, winner of both the Double Rise and Triples Championships.

Bill Stevens, winner N.Z. Ball Trap Championship.

Tim Catling, Veterans High Gun winner.

David Fox was certainly popular with those who enjoy a wee drop when with a score of 215/215 he won the Old Grouse Trophy and Steve Atkins went one place better than last year to win the Winchester trophy event with 165/165

All who attended expressed their desire to return to the North Island next year to contest all titles and a good number took the opportunity whilst in Christchurch to book their accommodation for the 2002 World DTL Championships. A very successful trip for Australia.

ISSF World Cup Sydney 2000

Alan Maher

Competition Manager, Shooting

Sydney International Shooting Centre, Liverpool, the Olympic and Paralympic Games shooting venue was host to approximately 700 shooters from 85 Member Federations who took part in the March World Cup. The shooting centre which was officially opened in September 1999 in time for the Oceania Championships, was well received by athletes and officials who collectively described it, as did the International Shooting Sport Federation, as the best shooting range in the world.

With the Olympic Games following only months after the World Cup, the Sydney Organising Committee for the Olympic Games (SOCOG) took the decision to install many of the additional facilities which will be used at Games time earlier than what had initially been planned. This enabled shooters to experience some of the facilities which will be in use in September.

Officially opened by ISSF President Olegario Vasquez Rana, the World Cup, the largest ISSF competition ever conducted in Australia, was conducted in typical autumn conditions which ranged from heavy rain in the early days of competition which made conditions difficult for the clay target shooters, to the heat of the summer sun.

The 33 ISSF appointed Jury Members who will also be officiating at Games time were full of praise for the level of competency shown by the competition officials, a number of whom had officiated at the 1996 Atlanta Games, and gained the confidence of shooters from day one.

Under the direction of Technical Delegates Gary Anderson and Jesus Elizondo, the World Cup was also used by SOCOG as a Test Event for the September Olympic Games. This provided SOCOG with the opportunity to test the shooting centre under exacting competition conditions, as well as the various functional areas and hundreds of volunteers involved with the Olympic Games. As a result SOCOG, with the support of ISSF officials, has identified a number of areas which will be addressed prior to the Olympic Games to ensure that shooters receive the best possible conditions to compete for Olympic medals in September SOCOG appreciates the support received from ISSF President Olegario Vasquez Rana, Secretary General Horst Schreiber and ISSF officials, which greatly assisted the Organising Committee with its planning and conduct for what the ISSF has described as the most successful Test Event that shooting has experienced and an excellent rehearsal for the XVII Olympic Games in September.

51st Grand Australian Handicap

The first event for the 2000 Nationals, proudly sponsored by Perazzi Australia, attracted some four hundred and forty one competitors including eight from New Zealand. At the end of the 50tgts twelve possibles, which include two juniors, shot off for the Perazzi MX5 shotgun, Royal Blue Sash, Silver Australia Badge and the Gordon Hall Perpetual Trophy. I would like to dedicate this copy of the MTB to the "Non Shooting Workers", who do so much at our Club. They are at every Club. They come in the form of Secretary, Treasurer, Kitchen Ladies, some help mow the complex and many other jobs. So thanks to our band or workers who never shoot a possible but are always ready to help. Thanks to all!

28-3-00 Bible Day

The day the bible came, I took my wife to Bingo and went on to Harry's place. he was out side reading the paper.

He said "did you get the bible yet?". I said no it was too early for my postman yet and I asked could I have a look at his. He said no, I am locked out, I pulled the door and it locked and I haven't got a key. He had rang the locksmith, but while waiting we started to demolish the house to get in when the locksmith arrived. It wasn't long before I was glancing through the Bible. So leaving Harry to restore his house I was off to read the bible.

I didn't know "Col Burt", but after reading CTSN for many years I know the contribution Col has put into Clay Targets. To Col's loved ones & dear friends I send my deepest sympathy.

Last copy I welcomed new staff to ACTA and again welcome Rebecca & Daniel. You are getting out numbered down there Andrew. It was great to see our new National Office on the cover, also good to see so many shooters express themselves in "Your say". For and against, different opinions, it all makes good reading & shows interest in the direction of our sport. Keep writing.

There was an old duck shooter because of rules and age had to give up duck shooting. So when his wife was about to cook his rump he would put a few nicks in the rump and put in a few pellets. While he was eating his rump he would spit out the pellets and say to his wife, it is spitting out the pellets when eating ducks that I miss the most. Talking about ducks there was this fellow who had this pet duck and took it everywhere. So this night he was buying a ticket to go in to the movies, when the lady who sells the tickets said "what is that". The bloke said "It's a duck", so the lady said "no ducks in our picture show". The fellow went outside and dropped the duck down his pants then came back in, brought a ticket and went into the pictures and sat down next to two ladies. As it was a bit hot the owner of the duck opened the zip of his pants and the duck put his head out to cool off. Then one lady said to the other - look at this rude thing. The other lady said - don't take any notice of it. The first lady said - I cant help it, the dam thing is eating my popcorn.

When I write up our own shoot I try to write it up as soon as possible as I have to get it away early Monday to make the deadline. So I leave some news till the next copy. I think we have the fairest Club in Australia. Like if you go up a grade we let them win the raffle: Ken Vicary went back to A Grade and we let him win the 1/2 case Ammo Raffle, and Vince Dollisson went to A Grade and we let him win the Fruit Raffle. Believe it or not. I was in the carpark when this impressive mini bus came up the track I thought there would be 20 shooters, but it was the Rizzini bus with Robert & Bill Nioa and shooting mate Bill McKechnie. Welcome and thanks for coming and I think Robert will be back if it hadn't been for Emma in the Cont. Robert would have taken the lot. I think we will see more of the Rizzini bus if Robert has his way. Welcome anytime.

A call from Irvine Wynyard who I asked to let me know how he went in NZ. It seems the weather was the winner as it beat a lot of shooters. The only plus Irvine had was that he made the NZ Team. He shot 50/50 D/B, 43/50 SB & 149/150 Pts, but didn't carry on with any. Irvine enjoyed his trip and like Peter came home with a cold. He also shot 98/100 in the Macintosh. thanks for the news Irvine. Good shooting.

It only seems a little while ago when we talking about moving to our National Office, new Millennium, and Y2K Bug and now here it is June and the GST & the ECG is now a problem.

Kingaroy 2-4-00

Dick Osborne from our Club dropped into Kingaroy for a shoot on the way to the Nationals and to give me a story. He left his scorecard at Kingaroy. Thank goodness you can another one for $20 Dick. Good shooting and best of luck Dick. Thanks Max for shoot results. in the 25T DB it was PJ Forner who left Graham Bickerton, Phil Northcott and Gary Brown, in his wake to take A Grade. Neale Tessman B Grade & Jarrod Brown C Grade, all with possibles. Event 2 the 25T PTS. It was clean cut with Gary Brown A Grade with a possible, Cameron Brown B Grade with only 2 points down & Phillip Keath C Grade. Event 3 25T CONT. It was once again Gary Brown A Grade after a shoot off with Graham Bickerton, Gary Schneider, Peter McDonald & PJ Forner, also with a score of 125/125. Gary Brown took High Gun for the day. Good shooting Gary. Where were you Chips?

Thanks Max for the news and you get $20 for the return of Dick's card. Also in CONT. Neale Tessman B Grade & Max Behm C Grade.

Kingaroy Shoot 4th June Patrons Day DB PTS CONT. Noms $20. If you win I don't know if you win the Patron or not. See you again Max. Thanks!

Did you know if you earn $40,000 a year and your wife earns nothing she is your dependant, but if your wife earns $40,000 a year and you earn nothing your a no good bludger. You come home and get a little love, a little affection, a little tenderness - look around you, make sure you are in the right house.

In C Grade Tony Clarke DB MED with Harry Walker PTS & CGHG. - She left him on the sofa when the phone rang, but she was back in no time. Who was that he said and she replied it was my husband. STREWTH! He exclaimed, I had better be off. Relax she said - he just told me he was down at the Club shooting clays with you!

Gympie Sporting Clays - Sexton 16-4-00

The Gympie Club would like to thank Vic Tipman for his generous gesture of providing sandwiches to be sold for lunch. Your generosity exceeds you good looks Vic.

This is how it happened. Vic bought his own seafood sandwiches out for lunch and put them in the Club fridge. Someone thought they were in the fridge for sale and they were sold to the shooters. So Vic took his revenge out on the targets and took out High Gun. Good shooting Vic.

Maryborough - Jim Kinghorn Memorial 23-4-00

Harry told me he spends most of the shoot explaining my progress in health to interested shooters. So could I tell them, so he can get on with his shooting.

Well I am waiting for a date to go to Brisbane to have a blood dye test, but you feel that you are in limbo waiting for one test then another. Hope it is all behind me soon Thanks to all enquiries.

Well I just received mail with notice that lack of shooters for our Jim Kinghorn Memorial because of it being Easter Sunday. The shoot is cancelled so I will get MTB off to CTSN now. With plenty of 2 Day Shoots in June with Brisbane Annual Skeet 3rd, 4th June. Caboolture 3rd & 4th June Trap. If you are in Whitfield Country Rockhampton 10th and 11th June, say good day to Graham for me. Down the line.

One smart fella said, now you are getting around the traps as much, you can't say till next time, see you at the shoots. So I said - what do you suggest? He said Good shooting and put the dunny seat down. Don't you just love these smart guys!

Good shooting to all till next time.

*See you at the shoots.

Dear Sir,

I wish to respond to several letters in the April issue of the shooters journal, which were in my opinion partly playing the man but not the ball.

I respect the right of any individual to have a different opinion to mine and to debate it, but I do expect that individual to respect my right to express that view.

I believe that as we live in a democratic and free enterprise system which allows every individual freedom of choice to purchase any brand of product which in their opinion is most suitable to their requirements. In other words, we all make these choices when buying items from supermarket shelves and every other purchase we make in our daily lives both personally and in business.

In my article in the February issue, I outlined part of the criteria that I apply when considering buying a clay target trap to be used for competition.

That criteria is well known by members of my club and other shooters that I have worked with and have been involved with in the selection process of purchasing traps and I can assure readers I have held that view for at least 12 years and I will not in the foreseeable future deviate from that position.

In closing please ask anyone who knows me well and I am sure that they will tell you I will never be led anywhere by anyone to swallow anybody's propaganda.

*With respect
L Crema*

Australian Veterans Games Wagga Wagga

Wagga Gun Club Inc

high Gun and Championship winners, left to right: Peter Simon (Champion of Champions), Doug Blewitt (Skeet), David Caccioppoli (P/S and 45-54 age High Gun), Ron Murray (55-60 Age High Gun), Carol Zagor (Ladies Skeet, DB and Ladies High Gun), Dennis Mackie (66-71 Age High Gun), Ken McPherson (72+ Age High Gun), Pud Burgess (DB, SB and 61-65 Age High Gun).

Old & new friendships were made again when over 70 shooters participated in, the sixth Australian Veterans games Wagga Wagga. Shooting was under way at the Wagga Gun Club from 14th March to 18th March 2000. With shooters coming from as far away as Lightning Ridge, however the number of entries was slightly down on previous Veteran Games but the organising committee was very pleased with this biannual event.

Mrs Julie Hoy, President of the Australian Veterans Games Wagga Wagga and a councilor of the City Of Wagga Wagga was invited to open the competition and fire the first shot. With the motto of the "Friendly Games" the spirit in which the competition was conducted certainly lived up to the name with most shooters indicating that they would be competing at the next Australian Veterans Games Wagga Wagga.

The weather conditions were hot except for Saturday when the rain came for part of the morning, which made it humid as well as very hot. Some great scores during the Games were reflected in the fine results posted by many shooters. The concept of only shooting against shooters in the same age group and not being graded was widely accepted by all shooters attending.

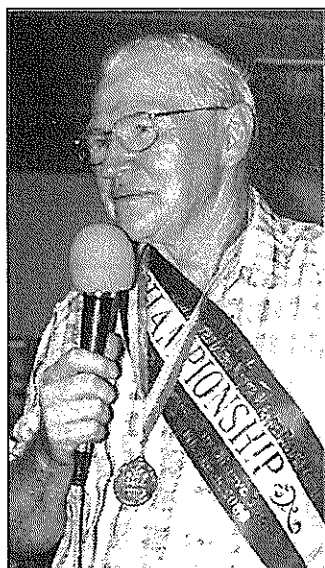

We had several birthdays celebrated during the games; Pud Burgess (63), Dennis Mackie (72), Grahame Casey & Doug Munro (70), Barney & Kathleen Rooke celebrated their 52nd Wedding Anniversary and Ken & June McPherson their golden (50) Wedding Anniversary.

The first day saw Doug Blewitt from Cooma taking out the 75 tgt Australian Veterans Games Skeet Championship with 105/107 after a shoot off with David Caccioppoli of Batlow.

The 50 tgt Australian Veterans Games D/B Championship was held on day two and saw only one possible shot with fourteen other shooters shooting 49/50. Pud Burgess from Cobar the overall winner.

Peter Simon — Richardson with Bill Attwood. Peter was successful in winning the 75tgt Australian Veteran Games Champion of Champions Championship with a perfect score of 125/125.

Pud Burgess from Cobar — Winner of the Australian Veterans Games 50tgt DB, 50tgt SB championships and the High Gun in the 61-6 Age group.

Carol Zagor — Hoppers Crossing winner of the Ladies — Australian Veteran Games Skeet and DB also Carol tok gold in her age group in the PS and bronze in the SB plus the Ladies High Gun.

50 tgt Australian Veterans Games Single Barrel saw Pud Burgess & Ron Garth with a score of 49/50. Both shooters ventured out to the track and Pud again was the overall winner with 57/58.

Day three saw once again only one possible shot in the 50 tgt Australian Veterans Games P/S Championship the successful shooter being David Caccioppoli of Batlow taking the overall.

The final day again only one possible was recorded in the 75 tgt Australian Veterans Games Champion of Champions. Peter Simon of Richardson shot a perfect score in hot & humid condition and the odd shower.

The High Gun Winners in each age group:-

Mrs July Hoy (president Australian Veteran Games) and Barney Rooke opening the Veteran Games

45-54 age: David Caccioppoli Batlow 441/450

55-60 age: Ron Murray Albury 424/450

61-65 age: Pud Burgess Cobar 436/450

66-71 age: Dennis Mackie Telegraph Point 418/450

72 + age: Ken McPherson Echuca 381/450

Ladies: Carol Zagor Hoopers Crossing 406/450

The Wagga Gun Club also conducted a BBQ tea; this was very well attended with all present enjoying the meal and chitchat and a few quiet drinks.

The President of the Australian Veterans Games was to do medal presentations but circumstances prevented her from attending. Past Presidents and committee members as well as keen supporter of juniors shooters Bill Attwood plus Andrew Sanders Executive Officer of the ACTA helped with the Medal presentation.

Olympic Targets kindly donated the sashes for the overall winners of each Championship plus all High Gun winners. We would like to thank Olympic targets for their on going support.

The 5 person team event, sponsored by Mr Geoff Reeves ("Mr G" the ice cream man) proved to be very popular. Joan Scott was invited to draw the names out to decide the teams. One shooter from each age group who shot the whole program was put into a team. This event was keenly contested with several teams in the running until the last day which saw the team of Carol Zagor, John Bainbridge, Tom Harris, Eric Vincent & Jack Barker being

The Australian Veterans Games will be held again in March 2002 and the proposed date 13th, 14th, 15th & 16th. The Wagga Gun Club will be looking forward to conducting the Games again, so shooters put it into your diary and come to one of the best and friendliest games in Australia.

The Wagga Gun Club would like to thank a special lady who doesn't like any recognition for very hard & dedicated work in the kitchen. The club would be lost without her and the shooters would go hungry, again Shirley a very big thank you and to all shooters who helped in anyway to make these Games a very successful shoot.

Shirley — our very hard and dedicated worker in the kitchen.

Sunshine Coast Clay Target Club

Last Sunday, the 16th April, the Sunshine Coast Clay Target Club (SCCTC) held their monthly shoot. 26 Keen shooters participated in very good shooting conditions with no wind to speak of and cloud cover was generally not a problem. The number of shoot offs required to decide positions in all events highlights this. We had shooters travelling to the shoot from as far away as Gympie and Dalby.

Event 1 (25 Targets Double Barrel Sweepstakes) saw the best shooting of the day with the most possibles shot during this event. Everybody then must have relaxed as we all proceeded to go to sleep on the odd target for the rest of the day. Event 2 (25 target Single Barrel) required a shoot off to decide the AA Grade Winner and second in A Grade. After a short shoot off Don Portors defeated 3 other shooters to take out second in A Grade. Pygmy McAndrew was successful in winning AA Grade from 2 other shooters.

In event 3 (25 Targets off Handicap), the Club President, Steve Davison shot the only possible. Another shoot was required to decide the minor placings. Brett Brown finally proved he could hit a few targets with his new gun in defeating Wal Durre from Gympie.

The main event for the day was event 4, 20 Pair Double Rise Championship. Wes Humphreys, with some good shooting, won the event outright even though he missed his last pair clean. A shoot off was also required to decide the AA Grade winner in this event. Phil Grove and Pygmy McAndrew had to shoot another 10 pair before Pygmy picked up the AA Grade result.

To complete the day, a shoot off was required to decide the Overall High Gun winner. Two ex-Darwin Gun Club members stepped onto the walks for the decider. After the first round, Phil Grove had defeated Pygmy McAndrew in the Double Rise section. This was a turn around from the previous shoot off some minutes earlier. Well shot Phil. The Club also had a new ladies shooter starting this weekend, Robyn Newsham. Welcome to the club Robyn.

Bev Taylor

30 July 1942 - 3 April 2000

It is with deep regret that the Tamworth Clay Target Club advises of the death of Bev Taylor after a long battle with cancer.

Although Bev was not a clay target shooter, she will be remembered by all shooters who shot at Tamworth, locals and visitors alike, for her catering for shooters, both at club shoots, for her afternoon teas and at open shoots for providing meals and snacks over the two days.

It was a very rare occasion that Bev missed a club shoot and never missed an open shoot to cater for the shooters.

It was timely that she was awarded the club member of the year for 1999 along with husband Rod for their service to the Tamworth Club.

As a mark of respect, Tamworth club member formed a Guard of Honour at her funeral.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to husband Rod and children Craig and Tracey in this time of sadness.

Neville Sydney Smith - Eulogy

13.04.1917 - 12.01.2000

Neville Sydney Smith was born on April 13, 1917, at Vacluse Sydney. He was the third child of Mr & Mrs Frank Smith of 'Trenayr'. The eldest of the family was Sadie, then Harry. Eight years later Neville was born, then seven years later Robert arrived.

Neville was a delicate child during the first five or six years of his life, which meant he was unable to participate in much activity. When the two oldest children were at boarding school, and he was living in an isolated country situation he was at a loss for young company. At the time there was a plague of rabbits in country areas. To combat the situation his father employed many men to trap and shoot the rabbits. This was great company for Neville, who followed the men on their rounds. This was the first experience of firearms and rabbit traps. His father bought him a .22 pea rifle, and from this he learnt the correct handling and safety of firearms, which he followed through his life and the correct handling of rabbit traps as well. He wore out the barrel of his first rifle, but with the pocket money he earned from rabbit skins and carcasses, which he sold at the freezing works, he bought another barrel for his rifle.

The freezing works at the time were situated on the bank of the Mole River crossing. Neville's next purchase was a pushbike, which meant he could deliver his carcasses and pelts himself.

When Peter Hynes was born he was delighted. It meant that he had someone to play with. He rode his bike to 'Taronga' to see Peter, and at other times to visit Terry Spencer at 'Moorabinda'.

Neville went to school at Mudgee. He stayed with his sister, who at the time was married to Ted Moore. He was very fond of Sadie and their children James and Juelie.

Joan met Neville through Harry's marriage to Flo, who was her cousin, and Neville and Joan were married on March 31 1940 in Sydney. They lived at 'Trenayr' and afterwards at 'Monkstadt'.

While at Trenayr he became a very keen photographer. At this time he also suffered from poisoning through preparing sheep dips and drenches with arsenic, which was the only preparation available at the time. He was very ill for many years before he was cured by Dr Steiner of Emmaville.

In 1944 his son Murray was born and in 1946 their daughter Pam.

There were tough times at 'Monkstadt' with the end of the war, then they experienced drought, fires and floods over many years but with great courage and determination, Neville and Joan managed to succeed.

Clay pigeon shooting was one of Neville's great loves of his life. He started a clay target club on 'Monkstadt' called 'Riverside' gun club, which was appreciated by all who attended. He joined Ballandean Club, and over the years won many trophies and championships, also represented Queensland in State Club championship events.

He understood machinery thoroughly, repairing his own and at 'Monkstadt' he produced high grade lucerne.

In 1989 it was time to retire, Neville would have preferred Darwin to retire, because it was never cold, but he could not leave Tenterfield because of all his close friends and relatives. Retirement is difficult for a man from the land but Neville found a place for gathering more knowledge or should we say passing advice on. As he strolled the street, a seat in town became known to us as A Seat of knowledge, where he sat and enjoyed his retirement.

At the local Rifle Club he introduced bench shooting, and this practice continues. Event at his last shoot, he still managed to score 6 fives and on V.

He served the community as Justice of the Peace, and as New South Wales Firearms Safety Awareness Officer.

He was a remarkable man, and sadly to say a lot of history has gone with Neville, as he could tell you who bought the first car, tractor, washing machine and many more things that the young generation take for granted in our fast living world today.

Poetry was a natural gift. He wrote many short poems for many occasions as some of us will recall. The local paper, politics, shooting, animals including his favorite pet Heidi, family weddings and many more.

Neville leaves us with memories. Even when he was so ill he could make the doctor and hospital staff smile.

Neville leaves his wife Joan, his children Murray and Pam, 6 grand children and 6 great grand children, who called him Trig.

There's a road I call remembrance,

Where I walk each day with you,

All filled with memories true.

There are hills and fields and budding trees,

And stillness that's so sweet,

That it seems that this must be the place,

Where God and humans meet.

Sydney One Gun Triathlon, 2000

27th February

For the second time those who know how to use a shotgun came to Sydney Clay Target Club for the "One Gun Triathlon". 50 Skeet, 50 DTL Single Barrel, 50 Trench, all shot continuously.

One gun all the way and choke changes not permitted.

This event should inspire and kindle the aspirations of those who are well aware of the three disciplines and their variations so why not be in it next time.

The "spoils" were taken by Paul Farrugia 1st

Then the rest Gary Rootes 2nd, Tas Psarakis 3rd, S Tsoukalis 4th, D Vlachas 5th. Ladies: S Psarakis. Junior: G Chrysostomou.

They went home with the well earned Cash, Sash and Medals. A very satisfying day for "Those who dared".

Roma Clay Target Club

At the recent Australia Day Awards, Roma Clay Target Club was nominated in both the Bungil Shire and the Roma Town Council for the "Community Event of the Year" Award.

This award was for the 1999 National Down the Line Championships held in March.

In the nominations it was stated -

Over 500 shooters and their families attended, with visitors from all over Australia, and also two from England to compete.

This was the first time that a National competition was held in a rural area.

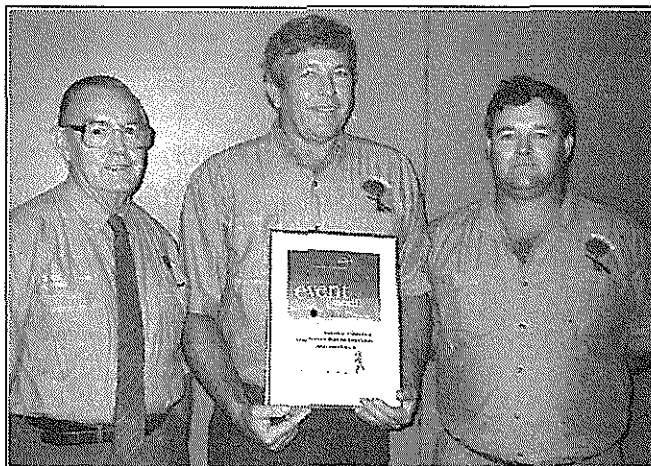

Shooters were amazed at the high standard of facilities available, with many remarking that these Nationals were the best they had ever attended, and some have attended more than 20 Nationals.

With the Grounds in immaculate condition, 13 identical machines throwing identical targets to a perfect background and three extra traps for practice. Visitors came to an air-conditioned clubhouse, a large sealed car park, excellent catering facilities supplying all meals and then to be entertained at night, many shooters did not leave the grounds until after 11 pm. With a separate administration area, also air-conditioned, a large well-equipped workshop for the trap mechanics and a gunsmith as well.

Camping facilities were available at a minimal cost, and those requiring other accommodation, the club arranged that also.

With the benefits to Roma, the event really put Roma and District into National focus. Roma is certainly known for its hospitality. Visitors were certainly impressed with the friendliness of business people and the average citizen. It was certainly a team effort, with both councils providing invaluable assistance in setting up the facilities, with local business houses as sponsors, many members over the years working to get their club house and grounds to a very high standard. With all the hard work done during the championships, many took annual leave to do so, the cleaning and the cooking starting at 4 am. All this work done on a voluntary basis.

In the planning stages, some critics felt that a small rural town like Roma would be unable to host such a large national event. However, the community really supported Roma Clay Target Club and the event of the year ran exceptionally well in all areas, as the following comments indicate -

"I've been going to the Nationals for some twenty odd years and I can honestly say that I have never seen anything like the spectacle and the entire package that the Roma Clay Target Club presented over the eight days of competition" - Adrian Cousens.

"We were very proud to be Australians at our National DTL Carnival which was such a wonderful showcase to those international shooters who attended Roma. Roma Clay Target Club - what a great job they did. How justly satisfied they should be feeling. The club is obviously blessed with strong membership, members who all worked hard as a team to showcase their club and their town". Jeff & Barb Nash, Woolgoolga, NSW

"You should be proud of the way you ran and organized the shoot as it was the friendliest Nationals we have been to. I look forward to returning again to Roma one day in the future" Reg & Mary Walker, Avenel, Vic.

These letters certainly echoed the opinion of all who attended the Nationals, and congratulations must go to Roma for winning both these well earned awards.

CUZZO'S RAMBLINGS JUNE 2000

The 2000 Trap Nationals. Not only the first Nationals of the new millennium, but also the first Trap Nationals conducted at the new National Shooting Ground. Personally, I thought it was a great shoot. The success of the Nationals is often gauged by the number of competitors and the yardstick is usually the Double Barrel. This year that prestigious event had 527 entrants and even though shooting is under attack from all quarters at the moment, that is still about 30 more than the average over the past 25 years since I started attending the Nationals.

Also the weather was very kind to us. The first day of the Pre-Nationals was a little windy and on the last day of the Nationals, we got a few light showers late in the afternoon. In between we got seven consecutive days of glorious autumn weather. I think that this run of good weather is a reflection of two things. The first is the wisdom of staging the event in autumn, which is probably the most stable time of the year as far as weather is concerned. And the second is the wisdom of selecting a site for the National Shooting Ground that is well inland and far removed from the influence that nearby oceans can have on the weather of coastal areas.

The only venue now used for the World Skeet Shooting Championships is San Antonio, which is situated in south central Texas, well away from any weather effects generated by the Gulf of Mexico. I have shot the nine days of the World Shoot there on eight separate occasions, and can count on the fingers of one hand the number of days that were cold or rainy or even had strong wind. My memories of San Antonio in October, which is the middle of autumn in the Northern Hemisphere, are of calm warm sunny days going on seemingly forever.

However, prior to anchoring the World Shoot at the National Gun Club in San Antonio, the event used to circulate around the North American continent on a rotational basis, in much the same way as our Nationals used to. By the time I started attending, the number of entrants had become so large that the only other venue capable of hosting the Shoot was Savannah in Georgia. Unfortunately Savannah is situated on the coast and bears the full effect of the unstable weather influenced by the proximity of the North Atlantic ocean.

I only shot the World Shoot in Savannah three times, but I still have vivid memories of every conceivable weather condition from oppressive heat and humidity, which brought out the sand fleas in droves, to windy rainy days so cold the Texas referees swore they would never return. I remember lightning storms so severe they stopped the Shoot on several occasions. And I remember sheltering in a vendors building one afternoon, watching people shoot in rain that was not only coming down almost horizontally, due to the strength of the wind behind it, but was also so heavy that you could barely see 100 yards in it. I was very grateful to have shot at 9.00am that morning, before the front came through. Although I won the first of my World Skeet Championships in Savannah, my fondest World Shoot memories are definitely of San Antonio.

Back to the Trap Nationals! I guess every Nationals has at least one big news item. This year I thought there were several. One was definitely Billy Iles' retirement. When I first heard it, I was speechless and somewhat sceptical, so at my first opportunity I fronted the great man. And guess what? It's all true. Bill told me that he had actually made the official announcement at the New Zealand Nationals, several weeks before. Now Billy and I are actually a lot closer than most people realise. We often room together on trips away and whenever there is a big shoot at Metro, I always enjoy Bill and Michele's hospitality. I'm also very proud to have Bill's name alongside mine a couple of times on the National Two-man Team Trophy. I've shot with some great partners over the years, but pound for pound, you'd be hard pressed to find a better team-shooting partner than Bill.

Still somewhat puzzled, I questioned Bill at length about his decision, because it certainly seemed a little premature. His shooting performances do not seem to have waned recently and I think it would be fair to say that he is probably at the peak of his career. In his usual straightforward manner, Bill gave me a couple of good reasons that I could not argue with. Actually, upon reflection, I was able to relate to them so closely that it has set me thinking about how far off my own retirement should be. Anyway, every dark cloud has a silver lining. Bill has assured me that although you probably won't see him at any of the larger Trapshoots from now on, he still intends to support his local club, do some more coaching, and to shoot some Sporting and maybe even a little more Skeet.

Another very newsworthy item was not just the fact that Glenn Castal-laro won the National High Gun, but the magnificence of the score he shot to win it. Seven points down out of 475 over six events is a great effort and I was truly impressed. In fact it ties the highest score ever shot over the current format. And when was that record of 468/475 set? Back in 1984 by none other than W J Iles. So what happened to the big feller with the pictures on him this year? Well you don't have to look back very far to find him. After six days of shooting, Glenn only managed to beat Billy by a single solitary point. And to further emphasise the magnitude of the performance put up by both Glenn and Billy, you have to count back a further six points before you come to Arthur Turner on 461 in third place. Bill, are you absolutely sure you're not quitting too soon?

Clay targets and the machines that throw them have been at the forefront of most shooting discussions for the past couple of years and this Nationals was no exception. At various times I heard all sorts of reports, both good and bad, on each of those items. This year we used Gemini machines throwing orange Corsivia targets, and to be perfectly honest, I thought they both did quite a serviceable job. By now I think everyone involved knows my thoughts on clay targets. I firmly believe that Trench targets should be used for shooting Trench and that a much softer, purpose-built, American style target should be used for Trap and Skeet. However, if you must try and use one target for both applications, then the orange Corsivias seem to be as good as any. It's just a pity that a fair percentage of the batch supplied for the Nationals were badly buckled, which caused a fair bit of heartache for all concerned and developed into an ongoing difference of opinion as to just exactly how, when and where they got buckled. I'll be interested in the outcome of that one!

As for target throwing machines, there has probably never been more debate on this subject than at the present. And it seems that a lot of my recent editorial comment on the subject has been misunderstood. A lot of people have asked me what have I got against Ludwig Kohler and his machines and why have I been giving him such a bagging. The plain truth is absolutely nothing. In fact just the opposite. I have simply been trying to bring to the surface a lot of undercurrent that has existed and get some constructive debate going in order to examine and clarify the situation. In the April issue I actually pulled the rug out from under a couple of the nagging doubts I had personally had about the machines, and tried to debunk several other derogatory theories while I was at it.

To bring the matter into crystal clear perspective, I am happy to admit to being one of Ludwig's customers. Last year my Gun Club authorised me to select and purchase a new DTL trap. After careful consideration, I decided that the Gemini was not only of excellent design and quality, but also offered the widest available array of features, making it arguably the best value for money on the market. With that in mind, we purchased and installed one in our main layout. We have been so happy with it that we have another one on order and intend to take delivery of it as soon as our finances allow.

This year's AGM was a fairly tame and friendly affair, especially when compared to some of the more turbulent ones of recent years. The most reassuring thing to come out of it was the fact that most people have come to accept that the National Ground at Wagga was not only inevitable, but also a positive step for the future of our sport. However, what surprised me the most was when the majority of people who had previously been against the Wagga complex, voted overwhelmingly to overturn the current proposal of staging the Nationals elsewhere every third year. Almost everyone in attendance at the AGM voted to keep the Nationals there for at least the next five years, in order to allow the complex to develop, and I would now be surprised if this proposal is not ratified shortly by the full executive.

I thought the trade displays this year were great, even in temporary marquees. However, another of the great advantages of having a National Shooting Ground is the commercial viability of permanent vendors buildings, just like they have at the Grand American Trapshoot and the World Skeetshoot. Wait till you see those - rainproof, windproof, dustproof and even carpeted floors - too good. And speaking of the trade people, I thought Kevin Wright and Ian McGeoch did their usual super job this year. It's great not only to have instant on-site repairs in case you have a problem, but also to get those other routine jobs done without the hassle and time loss of shipping. My wife used the opportunity to get Ian to fit a new ejector in her gun and retine her release trigger. While it was there Kevin spent some time with her and refitted her stock. I must admit to being a little apprehensive about that with two State Shoots only a couple of weeks off. However, the next day she won her grade in the Champion of Champions and at Wagga's two-day Skeet Shoot the following weekend, she broke 100 straight both days. Thanks boys - great job.

Vale: The only dark cloud during an otherwise bright week at the Nationals, as far as I was concerned, was news of the untimely passing of Jim Parsell. Jim was one of the longtime tireless workers at the Frankston Australian Gun Club in Melbourne. Karen and I had shot at Frankston the previous week and during the afternoon I had been chatting with Jim. So it came as a great shock to hear that he had died suddenly and unexpectedly of a heart attack. My deepest sympathies to his father Danny (another tireless FACTC worker), the rest of the family, and all the other members of the club. We'll miss him.

This month's Shooting Trivia Question. Who is the only person to have won the Grand Australian Handicap more than once? Mail your answer to Shooting Trivia, P.O. Box 265, Bairnsdale 3875, to arrive by 25-06-00. The first correct answer drawn shall receive a free entry to next year's Grand Australian Handicap. The correct answer to April's STQ was: The only shooter to ever force me to shoot off on 398 for the National Skeet High Gun was the late Col Burt in 1986, who probably should have won his first Australia badge that night, instead of having to wait another 13 years for it. The first correct answer drawn was submitted by David O'Sullivan from Seaford in Victoria, who wins a free entry to this year's National Skeet Championship. Congratulations David. If anyone has a good trivia question or an interesting subject for discussion in this column, please forward it to me at the above address.

West Australian ISSF Carnival 1st & 2nd April 2000

Over the weekend of the 1st & 2nd April 2000, the West Australian Gun Club (Inc) conducted its Annual ISSF (ISU) Carnival and promotion of the Olympic Disciplines shot in Clay Target. Members attended from all over the State and those who tried ISSF for the first time went home happy with trophies in hand. Congratulations to our novice "Trenchies and Skeeties".

This year though, the Carnival took on some new events, which weren't "true" ISSF authorised events, being a Double Barrel Points and Handicap. These new events were the ideas of two Club Members - John Bigg and Alan Sexton and having been already tested and tried, were put into the Carnival for variation. The Double Barrel Points operated exactly the same scoring system as the DTL Discipline, where else the Handicap operated on your average scores of the first event shot (for novices only) or using the chance of taking out the higher placed trophies as a person would need to shoot perfect scores to win. This event leveled out all of the competitors, with novices having the opportunity to win "first place".

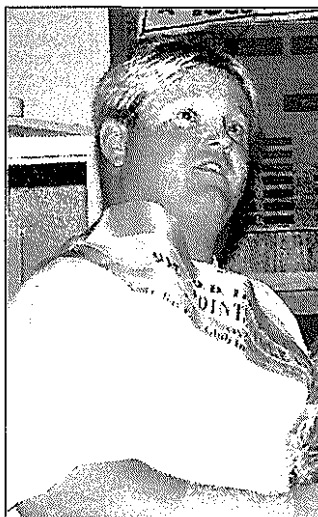

Everyone over the weekend enjoyed the catering, hospitality, BBQ's on both Saturday and Sunday and the magnificent trophies supplied by our sponsors - Roy Alexanders (himself) & Sons, Kambo's Retravisation, Smith's Snackvend, Schweppes Cottees, W.A.G.C (Inc), Murray & Christine Alexander.

The Club took the initiative in the Olympic Year, to put the Olympic Coins and Coin & Pin sets on the four major events as additional trophies. In all, the value of the trophies on the Whiteman Park Flora & Fauna ISSF Carnival was approximately $2800.

Many thanks go to Lindsay Hemley & Norm Atkins (ISSF Captain & Vice), Norma King & Rowan Young (Catering), Alan Sexton (Setup), John King (Office) and all others (Country & City) who assisted to make the weekend such a successful, enjoyable promotional carnival for the ISSF fraternity of Western Australia.

World Cup New Delhi - India 2000

The following competitors Brett Hall, Craig Bentley and Ross Walsh in double trap. Nathan Cassells, Dexter Barnes and Nathan McDonnell in trap ventured to the Sub continent to compete in the first World Cup of the New Millennium.

Nathan McDonnell drew squad 1 no1 position so he feels he is famous, the 1st person to fire a shot in world competition in the New Millennium (autographs can be obtained from Nathan at his discretion).

We arrived in New Delhi via various destinations i.e. Brett Hall from Darwin via Singapore, Dexter Barnes from Melbourne via Singapore, the remainder via Sri Lanka. This was not without hiccups due to our Team Manager having a better offer and pulling out prior to leaving.

Our 1/2 star accommodation wasn't over exciting; perhaps our Team Manager knew something.

Brett Hall was very unlucky not to make the final and the Indian shooter shot his personal best to shoot a 49 in the last round to put Brett out. Australia received its revenge by beating India for the Bronze team Medal behind Italy gold, Kuwait silver.

The individual medal's were:

 Silver Sila Manuel Portugal 142
 Bronze Almakioum Ahmed United Arab 141

The Team came 4th behind - Gold - Portugal
 Silver - India
 Bronze - Italy
 Taking into consideration the accommodation, food, pollution (you could not see any further than 300 metres) and all competitors having Delhi Belly, I feel we performed to the best of our abilities on the day.
 One of the team members took 66kg of excess baggage, water, vegemite, dry fruit, long life milk, cornflakes, museli bars, long life cheese spread and still became ill. Even as you read this not all is well in some tummies.
 We all would like to say thanks for the opportunity to perform at this level and yes we would go back.

Are you one of the 400,000 Australians who have diabetes and don't know it?

With early research results indicating more than 800,000 Australians have Type 2 diabetes, a greater awareness about the risks of developing diabetes is vitally important to slow the alarming rate at which it is spreading.

Most disturbing is latest research indicating that for every person who has been diagnosed with Type 2 diabetes, there is another person living with diabetes who doesn't even realise it.

What is diabetes?

Diabetes presents in two forms. Type 1 diabetes is genetic and may occur at any age, although it usually develops in childhood or adolescence and is the most common form of diabetes diagnosed before the age of 30. Factors in the person's environment trigger off the genes which cause the body to stop making insulin, and daily injections are essential to stay alive.

Type 2 diabetes (also known as adult onset diabetes) represents 85 to 90 per cent of all diabetes cases. The symptoms are not always obvious and often go unrecognised for long periods. It mostly affects people over the age of 50. Being overweight often triggers diabetes in this age group.

Type 2 diabetes is caused when the body's cells are unable to use glucose (the body's main fuel) because they are resistant to insulin (which is needed to move glucose into the cells). To compensate for excess glucose in the blood, the pancreas produces higher than normal levels of insulin. Eventually the pancreas becomes over worked and stops making enough insulin - leading to high levels of glucose in the blood causing Type 2 diabetes.

Unlike Type 1 diabetes, Type 2 diabetes can often be controlled with diet and exercise alone. Some people may need medicine - either oral medication or injected insulin - and many find their diabetes improves when they follow their treatment plan, which is aimed at keeping blood sugar levels as close to normal as possible.

Type 2 diabetes develops gradually with symptoms often being dismissed as insignificant or a sign of ageing. Many people with Type 2 diabetes don't know they have it until it has developed to a serious, often life-threatening stage.

Symptoms to watch out for:

- * Increase thirst
- * Irritability
- * Blurred vision
- * Slow healing wounds
- * Irritability and numbness

Early diagnosis and lifestyle changes make all the difference

The best way to manage diabetes is with a healthy lifestyle. People with Type 2 diabetes can lead full and active lives with exercise, adherence to healthy eating plans and the appropriate use of medication.

People with diabetes need to regulate their blood glucose levels and keep their bodies healthy through a low fat, low sugar diet, regular activity, managing everyday stress, avoiding cigarettes and moderating alcohol.

Food intake and exercise have a lot to do with controlling not only body weight, but also blood glucose levels. In order to manage their condition successfully people with diabetes need to have a good understanding of the foods they eat and how their body uses energy.

Specialists stress that people with Type 2 diabetes who are overweight should make weight loss a major priority in controlling their condition. Of course, exercise is an important part of efforts to lose weight.

To help control diabetes and provide adequate nutrition, food should be high in carbohydrates, high in fibre, low in fat and low in sugar. Carbohydrates should provide at least half the energy requirement - the main sources being plant foods such as bread, cereals, rice, fruit and vegetables.

It is the carbohydrates which affect blood glucose levels because they contain sugars and starches which are broken down to glucose, which then enters the blood stream. It is glucose that provides the body's cells with the energy they need to perform their particular tasks.

Regular exercise is equally important for people with diabetes as it helps the body's insulin work better.

With the help of the diabetes core team of health professionals and regular medical check-ups and monitoring, people with diabetes can work out the best times for exercise and food. For example, it might be more comfortable to eat a spread of carbohydrates 5 or 6 times throughout the day to keep blood glucose levels stable, rather than the traditional three-meal-a-day lifestyle.

With advice, management and the right attitude, diabetes can become part of a routine that can allow people to lead active, full lives. And a healthier diet with more exercise is beneficial to anyone - not just someone with diabetes!

Defuse Diabetes Awareness Campaign

With early research results indicating more than 800,000 Australians have Type 2 diabetes, a greater awareness about the risks of developing diabetes is vitally important to slow the alarming rate at which it is spreading.

Most disturbing is latest research indicating that for every person who has been diagnosed with Type 2 diabetes, there is another person living with diabetes who doesn't even realise it.

Defuse Diabetes is an important awareness raising initiative by Diabetes Australia aimed at finding those 400,000 Australians estimated to be living with undiagnosed diabetes.

It is not possible for the A.C.T.A. to ensure that advertisements which are published in this magazine comply in all respects with the Act and the responsibility must therefore be on the person, company or advertising agency submitting the advertisement for publication. early warning signs of Type 2 diabetes and promote the message that it can be successfully controlled.

Diabetes Australia stresses - with early diagnosis, Type 2 diabetes can be successfully controlled. Recognising warning signs and risk factors and having a simple test for diabetes are the crucial steps in preventing long-term complications. Diet and exercise programs, and in some cases medication, can ensure people with Type 2 diabetes go on leading full and active lives.

Are you at risk of Type 2 diabetes?

All Australians need to understand the risks that trigger diabetes and to recognise the warning signs, to help stem the growing tide of this deadly condition.

To make it easier for people to recognise that they should be tested for diabetes, specialists have determined the risk factors and urge people to take the diabetes 'tick test'.

Diabetes Risk Assessment Tick Test

Around 400,000 Australians have Type 2 diabetes and don't know it. Are you one?

Take the Tick Test below to find out if you are at risk of diabetes.

- I am over 50 and have high blood pressure ☒
- I am over 50 and am overweight ☐
- I am over 50 and one or more members of my family has diabetes ☐
- I am over 65 ☐
- I have heart disease or have had a heart attack ☐
- I had high blood sugar levels while I was pregnant (gestational diabetes) ☐
- I have had a borderline high blood sugar test ☐
- I have polycystic ovary syndrome and am overweight ☐
- I am over 35 and am an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander ☐
- I am over 35 and am a Pacific Islander, from a Chinese cultural background or from the Indian sub-continent ☐

If you have ticked one or more of the boxes then you are at risk of diabetes. Take your Tick Test card to your doctor and ask to be tested for diabetes.

DIABETES AUSTRALIA

If one or more of these boxes has been ticked, a doctor should be consulted and a test for Type 2 diabetes requested. Diabetes Australia also stresses that people at high risk of diabetes should discuss diet and exercise changes with their doctor to prevent Type 2 diabetes.

Type 2 diabetes:

- * Represents approximately 85 to 90 per cent of all diabetes
- * Is more frequently diagnosed in people who are overweight, have high blood pressure and who have a family history of the condition
- * Is the most common cause of blindness in people aged less than 60 years
- * Is the second most common cause of renal (kidney) disease
- * Is the most common cause of non-trauma related lower limb amputation
- * Is a major cause of death by disease in Australia - it's our sixth largest killer
- * Is one of the top health priorities in the nation
- * Costs the nation an estimated $1 billion every year

Defuse Diabetes

Defuse Diabetes is a campaign that aims to find people who have Type 2 diabetes and don't know it.

About Diabetes

Diabetes is a serious condition. If left undiagnosed diabetes can cause serious health problems, such as blindness, kidney failure, heart disease, stroke and lower limb amputation.

If diagnosed diabetes can be managed and the risk of health problems reduced. People with diabetes can enjoy a good quality of life through:

- learning how to manage diabetes
- a healthy eating plan
- lifestyle changes such as exercise
- sometimes medication
- regular medical advice

Diabetes is serious

Please take the Tick Test over-leaf. Tell your family and friends so they can assess their risk of diabetes too. If you think you are at risk, please go to your doctor and ask to be tested for diabetes.
