World DTL Championship Results

Congratulations from all members to the successful competitors at the recent World Trap Championships in Christchurch.

Wayne Parkes from Wonthaggi in Victoria won the overall Championship with a score of 886/900.

The Ladies Champion was Wendy Barton from Gunning Dalton in NSW with a score of 869/900.

The Junior Champion was Travis Vaina of the Gold Coast Qld with a score of 873/900.

The Veterans Champion was Tim Catling from Kataning WA with a score of 863/900.

In addition the Open team, Ladies and Junior teams all won gold, what a fantastic effort.

Congratulations also go to Marcel Tigani for a Bronze medal in the juniors, Elizabeth Barton for Bronze in the ladies and our Veterans team also secured a bronze medal. For so many of our shooters to perform so well is an outstanding effort and congratulations to all involved. More details are also published in this issue.

State Carnivals

In May our Skeet shooters have 2 state carnivals to attend, Victoria holds it carnival at the Melbourne Gun Club on May 3rd-5th. The South Australian carnival will be held at the South Australian Gun Club on May 18th-20th.

Trap shooters have the Qld DTL carnival at the Gemfields CTC on May 4th-6th.

National Sporting Clays

The National Sporting Clays Championships will be held at Wagga on May 18th-19th.

WORLD DTL CHAMPIONSHIPS CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND MARCH 2002

The Canterbury Clay Target Club hosted the N.Z. Nationals and World DTL Championships from March 9-19, 2002. Around 140 Australian shooters made the trip across the Tasman for these titles and dominated the results with some GREAT Team and individual results.

AUSTRALIAN TEAMS FOR WORLD DTL

OPEN MEN: Arthur Turner, Andrew Miller, Max Medhurst, Ian Merick, Domingo Diaz.

LADIES: Wendy Barton, Kathy Gault, Carol Zagor.

VETERANS: Pud Burges, Tim Catling, Stafford Smith.

JUNIORS: Luke Roberts, Michael White, Travis Vaina.

TEAM MANAGER: John Maxwell

The N.Z. National Championships was the preliminary event for the World DTL event and the Canterbury Club had made a great effort to have everything perfect for the competition. All the traps were replaced with the new machines manufactured in Christchurch by CVR and all layouts had CVR voice releases.

Results for the N.Z. Nationals were as follows:-

Up to this stage of the competition it was almost all Australia, with some great shooting. Tony Arvanitakis and Steve Atkins battled out the Double Barrel for 673 targets under lights before Tony emerged as the winner. The Grouse Trophy match was won by Theo Lionatis and this backed up the good form in the Tripples. Glen Castellaro, John Whittakers, Ian Merrick and Neil McWhirter had all visited the winners' dias and were all looking good for the World Championship shoot.

The World DTL Champs attracted almost 90 squads and the field was split into three waves with varying start times. Day one saw squads 1-30 start at 8.30am, squads 31-60 at 11.00am and squads 61-90 at 2pm. On each successive day the banks of squads advanced to the next time slot so that all shooters had shot on all traps and at the three different times by the end of the competition.

Day one saw the Australian Open Team start at 8.00am and finish around 11am in overcast conditions. The other Australian Teams started at 11am and finished around 2pm. Scores were varied within the teams but still good enough to have our Teams well positioned at the end of the first 100 target.

Day 1: 1st 100 targets: Australian Open Team Ahead of NZ by 6 points

Ladies Team Ahead of England by 12 points

Junior Team Behind NZ by 7 points

Veterans Team Ahead of NZ by 1 point

Day two saw worse than lousy weather conditions and thankfully our Teams did not have to start until 11am. This was the last 100 targets of the teams competition. Fortunately the rain was starting to ease by 11am and the temperature creeping towards double figures, we would at least have a good chance to post a good score. Our Open Teams score of 2,906/3,000 looked good enough and we ended up 41 points ahead of England. The other teams went out to shoot at 2pm, with the rain stopped and the head wind slowing considerably all looked good. After the head wind had stopped it became very obvious that the traps had been set incorrectly. Several requests to the Officials for a reset were ignored and squads were instructed to shoot as they were, all of which was against the rules and later they apologised but this does little good as it cannot change the scores.

At the completion of day two our Ladies had cruised to a 39 point win over England scoring 1,681/1,860. The Veterans were having a battle with both England and New Zealand and eventually came third with 1,657/1,800. The Junior Team overcame its battle and defeated England to win by 14 points, thanks to some excellent shooting by Travis Vaina in extremely poor conditions.

Congratulations to all Team Members

AUSTRALIAN OPEN MENS TEAM — GOLD MEDAL
AUSTRALIAN LADIES — GOLD MEDAL

Marcel Tigani

Travis Vaina

Wayne Parks, Overall World DTL Champion.

Tim Catling, Veterans World Champion

AUSTRALIAN JUNIORS — GOLD MEDAL
AUSTRALIAN VETERANS — BRONZE MEDAL

While all attention was focused on the Team competition this was also the first 200 targets of the individual competition where the field was open to all competitors.

Australia was doing nicely in this area as well, with Wayne Parkes from Wonthaggi sitting in first position with 100 targets to go 595/600. Several others from the open field were still in the race with Ian Merrick and Terry Boucher on 586/600, Domingo Diaz 583/600.

Day three saw a totally different day with early sunshine, allowing us to see the snow on the surrounding hills that had fallen the day before. Little to no wind was a relief so all looked good. By early afternoon when the final was to be shot a gale was blowing again but at least it was not raining.

Wayne Parkes shot 294/300 to give him a total score of 886/900 one point ahead of Gavin Searle (NZ) 885/900. Congratulations to Wayne our new World DTL Champion.

It again proved to be a real whitewash with all sections being won by Australians.

OVERALL WORLD CHAMPION — Wayne Parkes 886/900
LADIES WORLD CHAMPION — Wendy Barton 860/900
JUNIOR WORLD CHAMPION — Travis Vaina 873/900
VETERANS WORLD CHAMPION — Tim Catling 863/900

Other placings went to:
Domingo Diaz 3rd overall; Robert Rose 4th overall; Glen Castellarlo 5th overall; Ian Merrick 7th overall; Terry Boucher 8th overall; Travis Vaina A grade; Sam Forsyth B grade

Full results can be viewed on the NZCTA web site at www.nzclay-target.org.nz/results.

My congratulations go to all Team Members and ACTA Members who helped to make this our most successful World DTL Championships.

Castlemaine Shooter wins Memorial Shield

Local clay target shooter Chris Opperman has won the prestigious Graham Langridge Memorial Shield on 9th March 2002 at Castlemaine Gun Club clay target competition.

"The shoot was very well attended, with 54 shooters contesting the two championship events," said club president Paul Bird.

"The annual Graham Langridge Memorial event is held in memory of Castlemaine Gun Club foundation member Graham Langridge, who passed away while on a duck shooting trip on the Gunbower Creek".

"In addition to the very close shooting competition, Bob Lendon and Geoff Clarke have been made life members of the Castlemaine Gun Club in recognition of their significant contribution to the club and its development over many years".

Majura Park March 2 Day shoot

RECORDS BROKEN !! and that's only part of the story, but first, all of our hopes & wishes came true.

Our 1st W/E shoot for the year was a ripper, the weather, the trophies, & the shooters combined together to give us the most successful w/e shoot that Majura has ever held.

Cecil Park, Illawarra, Sydney, Wagga Wagga,, Bombala, Canberra International, Grenfell, Bega, Orange, Goulburn, Cooma, Coleambally, Cessnock, Yass, Dubbo, Singleton, The Forrest & Toowoomba were the towns they came from, 79 on the Saturday & 97 on the Sunday, just shy of the tonne.

We read in all the stories from other clubs in the CTSN how they are impressed with the sponsors they have, well we are the same. Major shoots rely on this type of person/persons/Company's who are always there to help the shooting fraternity, without them some clubs would find it difficult to give back to the shooter that reasonable return for their hard earned noms, here are the ones that made our shoot great.....

RETRAVISION from SINGLETON & the HORSLEY PARK GUN SHOP along with Mal Tilly another great sponsor with EXPRESS SHELLS, Mr Arthur Potter from UNIVERSAL TRUSSES here in Hume, Local business SONNY COHEN, Willo Cameron from VENTURE HELICOPTERS, Phil Petriella of PERRAZI Australia, Bevan Brown from SHOOTERS WHOLESALE WAREHOUSE in

John Maxwell from Qld/NSW with the OA AA graded high gun sash.

Rob Reed, overall A grade high gun winner.

Winner of the B graded high gun, Robyn Langley.

Robert Seckar, C grade high gun winner.

Presentation time.

Mitchell, & last but not least, another one of our members Barry Skinner of PATHWAY COMMUNICATIONS. The above mentioned sponsors are the reason for half the successful w/e, the other half belongs to the shooters.

I suppose I should have written this bit at the start about what had to happen to get this w/e up & running, but with most clubs, as always, there are those volunteers in the front line when things need to be done. It is only after the shoot that we hear about the compliments on all aspects of our weekend, & this is when we can say to ourselves that every bit of effort was worth it.

Now for the info on our shoot!...Saturday saw our Kathie behind the desk 8:pm sharp (same as the pencil) with Therese being the assistant sharp pencil poised for action. What a day, Heuy looked down on us and must have said "lets make it a great weekend" he did! From there on hardly a cloud was seen, quiet overhead, no Ansett birds only Qantas, this halved the noise pollution, the grounds after 8 hrs plus...looked absolute perfect, thanks to our entrapped mower man "Peter Schrim".

SATURDAY.. Event 1 30t PS saw our Darryl Reed fight it out with "Gentleman John Maxwell", Darryl taking it to 138/138 & John 137/138

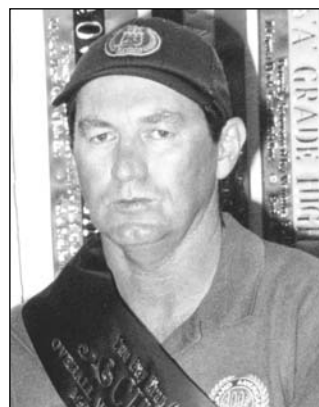

Event 2 75T Champ of Champ was won after another shoot off by Kathie Gault

123/125 winning by one point from Adam Roberts (Bombala)

SUNDAY Event 3 50t DB had every grade going for a shoot off. Starting with "C" Michael Mitton 48/50 took the grade from Adrian Jovanic 48/51, "B" Robyn Langly won the shoot off from James Hunt 58/59. Willo Cameron after contesting for OA dropped out at 166/167 & took out "A". Three left now, Tony A, Tony Abella & Kim Nealon. OK! first to go was Tony A at 196/197, then a few later Tony Abella score 201/202 taking "AA" which left Kim Nealon to shoot one more winning OA 202/202

Allan Constable, overall high gun veteran.

Kim Nealon, overall double barrel.

Event 4 30t H/cap this was the event I think everyone came for...a RIZZINI U/O Shotgun from Horsley Park Gun Shop. 11-23 mtrs was the spread of meterage they shot from with some of the Jnrs really showing that they were in "the groove" to win that Gun, but, and there's always that "but" the Jnr's came close, but (there's that word again) not close enough, George Georgievski from the Sydney area took the honors 63/63

Event 5 30t PS last event for the day (week end). Well! Darryl Reed did it again 90/90 only one to shoot this event clean. Now I'm not saying anything but, he does make trusses, could he have known something that the others didn't know!...like he thought it was a single barrel event...naaaaa that's not right.

It was getting late 6:15pm, some of the shooters had to go because of the distance to travel so we hopped into the presentation quick smart. Tim our Presi was estatic about the whole w/e, we had the most shooters & the highest value in trophies for a w/e shoot since its conception in '86, again thanks to those names already mentioned. I will only mention the OA's & H/G's in this paragraph, all results will be published in the usual way.

H/Gun OA Darryl Reed 375/385

Graded H/Gun AA John Maxwell 373/385

Ladies Kathie Gault 372/385; A Rob Reed 360/385

Jnr Brendon Burgess 337/385; B Robyn Langley 364/385

S E Marshall 19/12/1930 - 01/02/2002

It is with great sadness that the Hobart Gun Club has to report the death of one of its longest registered members, Sperry Edward Marshall aged 71 years.

Sperry passed away after collapsing at his home and a short time in hospital on February 1st, 2002. He had been a member of the Hobart Club for over 50 years and had the honour to be one of its life members.

He was a true non-professional shooter having not been subsidised or corporately funded in anyway and was probably one of the best shots clay target shooting has known.

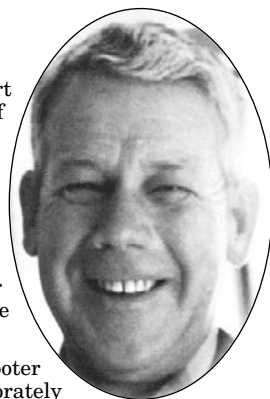

Over his lifetime he represented Australia at the 1972 Munich Olympics and in 1974, the World Championships in Berne, Switzerland. He had won 335 championships, 4 National Championships, been a member of 23 Open International Team, 16 of them being consecutive and 3 times being the team high gun. His highest break of 496 is still the Tasmanian record.

With his brother Paul as partner, they won 46 Deauville Doubles championships, and Sperry and Paul are the only two brothers to each win the National Champion of Champions twice. They both reached the old handicap mark of 27 yards, with Sperry achieving a highest break of 113 targets. Sperry was inducted into the Tasmania Sportsman Hall of Fame in 1987.

He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Jan, daughters Lorrae and Karin and four grand children to whom the club extends its deepest sympathy.

In the years to come his achievements will still be talked about and his presence at our club competitions and other activities will be sorely missed. To our minds the best way of remembering him is that he was humble in victory and gracious when defeated. Could we only hope the present and future shooters are so blessed.

The committee and members of the Hobart Gun Club.

Golden Ibis Shoot Warren — March 2002

Another very successful Golden Ibis shoot has come and gone for another year. Just a smidgen over 140 shooters took to the tracks for what can only be termed as a great weekend. Shooters again travelled from far and wide to via for the $20,000 worth of prizes and just by nominating a chance to win up to $50,000. Every dent of Narromine Gun Club, Ian Piddington taking second and first in AA grade from Nathan McDonnell on 101/102. A grade went to 007 Roger Moore from David Perri from Sydney, whom I must add looked in much better shape this year than he did last year. Gary Kilmartin from Hermitdale took B grade from Maurice Steer, T Kingwill won C grade from Tim McInnes. The ladies was won admirable by Louise Machul from Cobar with a fine 70/75. The junior winner was Oliver Shoemark with 72/75 and that evergreen Bert Boyd won the veterans after a shoot off with a fine 72/78.

shooter who nominated was given two one dollar scratchies. I didn't hear any real "whoopies" to say we had a big winner, however there were many $2 and $5 winners. Maybe next time someone may hit the jackpot.

The weekend got underway on Friday with many shooters turning up early for a fit of practice. Saturday loomed bright and sunny with a slight breeze some targets interesting. Traps set and shooters on the tracks were off to a great weekend on time as usual. The first event a 25 target double barrel cash divide to set the ball rolling.

Event two being the first of the championships. The Lower Macquarie Pointscore started well with some excellent scores. Tony Wright set the pace with a fine win with 114/114 from the presi-

Olympic Gold medallist Michael Diamond wins AA grade high gun and double barrel championship, with club secretary Mike Shields.

Event three, the 25 target single barrel trophy, again saw many possibles and a great win to Scott Wallis with 29/29. Bill Jones stated that he has been coaching Scotty, o.k. Bill we believe you! Bryan Manns from Cobar was the AA grade winner from Ray Manicaro, who has trouble with his index finger every time I walk past. Glen Harvey took A grade from Ken Fisher. B grade went to Mark Wright from Ross Hill. A great win in C grade to Wulf (Umph) Reichler from Brewarrina and from Warren, our own Tanya Hams, a very excited winner.

The big Double Barrel Championship was the last event for Saturday and as usual shooters could continue to shoot until midnight if necessary, to get a winner. Again, heaps of possibles to keep the shoot Marshall on his toes. A couple of runs through all the traps soon saw us back to the trap out the front, for the crowd to witness some excellent shooting by Australias' own Golden shooter Michael Diamond take the overall prize from Victorian Peter Cleggett. Michael shot a great 171/171 to take home the lovely sash and colour T.V.

Peter won AA grade with a fine 170/171 from Darryl Reed who always seems to shoot very well at Warren. This is about the fourth year Darryl has been in the Double Barrel shoot off and finishing in the top three or four. Tony Norris won A grade. Mitch Matilka won B grade from John Whalan who was having a whale of a time. Kevin Davey and James Rae took C grade. Louise Machul again won the ladies division. Maitilka took the double with the juniors and our little friend, Mick Bajada won the veterans with a great 25/25.

By this time the ladies had a lovely B.B.Q. tea arranged and the fluids flowing at the bar, and many a tale being told. Some shooters ventured further a field and the stories ran wild on Sunday morning. "Headlines-Rodney and Tony won".

Sunday again we started bright and early with most shooters being on time for the 8am start. Only a couple had to be resquaded, which is great to see. Certainly helps the office staff. This year we again changed the first event. The Hawkins Mixed special from 18 meters started the days proceedings. Kim Nealon took the honours in AA grade from Brad Webb who was again having a great weekend. Scott Wallis featured again taking A grade from David Perri, who looked even better on Sunday than he did on Saturday. Ari Kopoulos won B grade with his first visit to Warren. We cannot put in in his full surname and we would either run out of space, time or letters. Well done Ari. Vicki Norris, not to be out done by hubby Tony, took home C grade from a very happy Peter Lord.

Hard at work . . . Ken fisher (Quambone), Sid Kinsey, Don Williamson, president Kevin and Scot Smith all of Warren.

Event six the Lower Macquarie Single Barrel Championship. Again, heaps of possibles and with a great little cheer squad Geaorge Domnello won with a great 35/35. For his win, George won the noisey music set and a lovely sash. Mark McInnes from Narrabri won AA grade from Robbie Thompson from Cobar. David Perri getting better with old age, won A grade from Glen Neill. Gun down Ross McKay took B grade honours from Mitch Matilka still having a great shoot. The ladies was won by Louise Machul ,again, Tim McInnes in the juniors and Wal Rae taking the veterans with a fine 24/25.

goodies. Event seven being the Presidents Pointscore trophy. Bryan Manns from Cobar eventually got a win. "Has only take all weekend" he commented whilst walking of the tracks to accolades from all around. Bryan shot a creditable 195/195, from Roger Duthie being regulated to AA grade winner from Joe Cammiller. Local shooter John Wild was a happy A grade winner from also local Bruce Cosgrove both of whom shot the possible however dipped out in the shoot off. Mark Wright was in the winners circle again taking B grade as was Ross McKay. C grade was won by David Martin with Wulf (Umph) Reichler being runner up.

Time definitely running out and as yet to date, after eight years, no shooter has ever back to backed his Championship and claimed the reward of his nominations free.

Probably, in hind sight, nothing should have been mentioned regarding this on Saturday afternoon. Roger Duthie being last years winner of event eight the Lower Macquarie Double Rise Championship with a fine 29/30, just had to take up the challenge and shoot a greater score of 30/30 to take overall honours and win the lovely dish washer, sash and claim the reward of $146. Great effort Roger. Col Betts from Brewarrina won the AA grade after a shoot off with 36/40. Wayde Hawkins, the person responsible for event five, took second with a great 46/50 following shoot offs. A grade went to Button Powell shooting 28/30 from Ian Light (Black-out). Ari won B grade from local Scotty Smith. Wulf took C grade. A very happy, excited and shaking Julie Brind won the ladies division. M Wilton took honours in the juniors and that evergreen Kevin Heywood, froze on the trigger (lucky it was a broken pair) took veterans.

Well that's it for another year with only the High Guns to be repesented. Roger Duthie making it two in a row and three overall, took the Golden Ibis for 2002. This makes three and one for each of his lovely girls. Any more Roger and you need a chook pen to keep them safe. Roger shot a terrific score of 322/330 for the weekend to win by a comfortable margin of four. Possibly the biggest margin in any Golden Shoot to date.

Michael Diamond took honours in AA grade with a fine 318/330. It was really terrific to see Michael at Warren. The shooters and especially the kids, really enjoyed seeing you Mike. Many thanks for the time you took for the local media and autographing from the young and not so young alike who certainly valued your time. We would really appreciate it if you could return some time when we have the Double Trap and Ball Trap up and running. Glen Harvey from Coonamble took A grade honours. Glen shot a great 315/330 and has not been regulated to AA grade. Great effort Glen. Ari (and I am running out of paper) took B grade with a fine 297-330. A great weekends shooting Ari. Wulf (Umph) topped of a fine shoot taking C Grade shooting 227/330. Louise Machul (come to Cobar, it's nearly as good a shoot) won the ladies with a fine 278/330. Oliver Shoemark won the juniors with a top 290/330 and Kevin Heywood taking honours in the veterans shooting 298/330.

All over and plans already in place for next year. Huge thanks must go to all the travellers, without whom, any of these shoots would be possible. The trappers, referees, scorers, blackboard, office, drinks and kitchen staff all put in a big weekend and we sincerely thank you for your efforts. It really makes life easy and the shoot enjoyable. To all the workers who readied the club and grounds, they are a credit to you and I can assure you, many a comment was passed over the weekend. Brad and Stuart, I hope you had a successful weekend selling many goodies.

The Gun club would sincerely like to express their thanks to the few sponsors, and to the efforts of John and Malcolm in chasing these up. Many thanks to Auscott Cotton, IGA Supermarket, The Warren Motor Inn, The Macquarie Valley Motor Inn, Fuller Brothers, Robert Handsaker, the Club House Hotel and Chesterfield, Frank Cross Tyres and Bowen Fuel.

To finish I would really like to mention the Double Trap and Ball Trap facility that is still being installed. These facilities will give shooters in the western region a first hand chance to shoot competitive and practice at Olympic standards. With this in mind, hopefully we will get some and many budding and upcoming new shooters to our ranks. These and the disciplines that Michael Diamond and Russel Mark shoot. It is with great thanks to a grant from the Department of Sport and Recreation that these facilities are now available. It is hoped that in the not too distant future, we will have an opening day to celebrate these facilities and all are most welcome to come.

GOOD SHOOTING.

Dear Sir;

On behalf of the Gympie Clay Target Club committee members I would like to thank Norm Dale for his efforts in compiling the 'Late' Lost Bird column in your magazine. Having been associated with Norm for several years now I am aware of the time he puts in to make the column the success that it was. I think I can speak for probably all the active members of the clubs in the Sunshine Coast, Gympie, Maryborough, Kingaroy and Bundaberg areas that his write up was always the first and best read part of the magazine. Well done Norm your efforts were much appreciated by many. Your ability to be able to compile all the individual results into a light hearted story with considerable humor and to do it month after month, year after year and still have people looking for it in the mag is a credit to you.

It's a shame that your style and methods did not suit the magazine editors. I for one think that although I still enjoy reading the 'Shooting News' it is not quite the read that it used to be now that our local content shooting news is no longer present. Maybe there's a slim chance that your column may put in an appearance in future additions of our national publication.

CUZZO'S RAMBLINGS

This month I want to spend some time examining one of the most important activities conducted within our sport; coaching. Our coaching program, within the framework of the ACTA, is clearly staggering at the moment and during our entire history, has never really run like a well-oiled machine. NSSA struggled with exactly the same problem, for all the same reasons, for many years and eventually decided to give up trying to make a voluntary system work and opted to establish a standardised commercial system, which they called the Instructor Certification Program.

I was fortunate enough to have been involved with that program from its outset and although a minority of people still maintain that the voluntary system should have been persisted with, hindsight has shown this outlook to be unrealistic and the new program is certainly making much more progress than its predecessor. Maybe a similar move could be the solution to our problems in Australia. Anyway, that's not what I'm on about this month. What I want to look at is the importance of new shooters getting some good coaching as early as possible in their learning curve and even more importantly, the necessity for that assistance to be relevant to each separate individual. I consider this matter so critical, that in my book on shooting, I have devoted an entire chapter to the subject and titled it: Reasons to Shoot.

Every new ACTA shooter should carefully consider their own reasons and motivations for shooting clay targets at their earliest opportunity. Then allow this assessment to be combined with common sense, and moderated by practical and financial realities, when making important decisions regarding their shooting. Decisions such as the purchase of shooting equipment, the establishment of goals, the setting of travel itineraries, and decisions upon changes to their shooting style. Advanced shooters should be constantly monitoring this situation for any changes in their intentions or priorities, in order to try and circumvent any avoidable areas of frustration or retrograde steps. Most experienced competition shooters will immediately see the merit in this advice and wish that they had it to do over again, so that they could avoid the numerous pitfalls.

Let us examine the worst-case scenario of how to become a serious competition shooter. Consider the casual duck shooter, who comes into the sport by way of shooting a few rounds of skeet at the local gun club, for wing shooting practice, during the last couple of weeks before Duck Opening. This turns out to be more fun than he thought, so after the hunting season closes, he visits the gun club for a couple of hours on the occasional Wednesday afternoon, just to shoot a few rounds purely for enjoyment and thus becomes a casual clay target shooter. This in turn leads to meeting a few interesting people sitting around the clubhouse, and pretty soon the social aspect enters the scene.

He begins coming more regularly, and at predetermined times, in order to shoot and socialize with his new friends. Eventually they talk him into joining the local "ABC Industries vs The Rest" team shoot, which they run on the first Saturday morning of each month and suddenly the competitive element is introduced to his shooting. At first it's just to try and shoot as well as possible, in order to help the guys do well in the team shoot. Then, because names and scores are posted on the board for all to see, personal pride becomes a factor. The final step at this stage of development is comparing his score with those of other people who he considers should not be more than his equal. Now we have a guy seriously trying to improve his scores.

An advertisement on the notice board at the club for an upcoming two-day shoot is the turning point in his shooting career. When he first reads it, he is interested but hesitant to take such a big step. Discussions with, and encouragement from, several of the other team shooters who are going to attend, finally convince him to enter and suddenly we have a serious target shooter. Even though he doesn't shoot as well as he had hoped, the shoot turns out to be great fun and leads to several more small competition shoots during the year. The next step comes when he overhears several of his friends talking about the State Carnival coming up next month at one of the larger gun clubs in the state, which is only a three hour drive away. Ten traps, good trophies and a chance to see all the hot shots that he has read about in the CTSN, are just too good to pass up.

When he finds out that they have a spare spot on their squad, the deal is sewn up and the practice field becomes his second home. The big day comes, and after nervousness ruins his score in the Handicap, he does well in the Double Rise and shoots a 48 in the Double Barrel. His elation is hardly dampened when a big head causes him to make a disaster of the Single Barrel and another attack of nerves causes him to miss his first target in the C grade shoot-off for the Double Barrel. He returns home convinced that the only thing standing between him and a Silver Australia Badge is a new gun, and that Russell Mark will soon learn to tremble at the sound of his name.

Why is this the worst-case scenario of how to become a competition shooter? Because the poor guy took every step by trial and error and learned every lesson the hard way. He probably changed his gun three or four times. Each time cost him another changeover margin, so that by the time he began shooting an $8,000 gun, it had probably cost him $11,000 to get there. And even worse, every time he got a new gun, he had to re-learn to shoot it at great cost in time, money and effort. More importantly, every time he just started to get the hang of it, he had to go through one of those devastating major changes. Like switching from one eye to two eyes, or changing shoulders to align with his master eye, or changing his hold-point from the middle of the back of the trap house, to a foot above the top of the roof, because the excessive gun speed generated by the former, would not provide the consistency required to attain those big scores that he so desperately wants.

Now let's examine the best-case scenario of how to become a competition shooter. Our new shooter is introduced to the sport by a friend who is already an experienced, accomplished, knowledgeable competitor. His friend checks his eye dominance and starts him shooting off the correct shoulder, with both eyes open, on the first day. After loaning him a suitable gun during the interim period, he gets him into the best used screw-choked under and over Trapgun, that his budget will stretch to. This assures that a maximum of only one more gun change may ever be needed. He makes sure that the gun fits properly, and is mounted correctly, right from the outset. After making sure that his shells and choking are correct, he teaches him the correct hold point for each lane. After a few more pointers on foot position and stance, how much lead to see on the various angles, and the importance of staying in the gun after each shot, our novice is ready to shoot A grade averages by the end of the first year, and have a realistic chance at the Nationals within five years.

What are the lessons to be learned from these two diametrically opposed examples. The first is that a comparison of the two examples shows that with a little correct instruction and advice at the outset, the time, money and effort required to learn to shoot clay targets can be reduced by at least 50%. The second, and probably more important point, is gained from a study of just the first example; the fact that there are many different types of clay target shooters. Our example transitioned through the various different types, to eventually become a hard-core competition shooter. In reality, these shooters are in the minority, making up less than 5% of all ACTA members, and less than 1% of all shotgun shooters. Most shooters find their own comfortable niche a long way short of becoming a die-hard competition shooter.

Before an instructor, or any other person, gives shotgun shooters advice or answers their questions, it is fundamentally important to first establish what type of shooter they are, and what their reasons and motivations are, for shooting clay targets. Once this is established, if you can ascertain what their practical and financial limitations are, then you should be in a reasonably sound position to give them correct and relevant information. Differences in these criteria could mean that the same question from several different shooters, could require completely different answers for each of them.

Let's assume that you are approached by three shooters, who each ask you what type of gun would be most suitable for them to shoot skeet with. After chatting with them for a while, you deduce that you have one duck shooter, one trap shooter and one guy who seriously wants to be World Skeet Champion. Your answers should probably be: 1) your duck gun, 2) your trap gun, and 3) a brand new Kreighoff, complete with tube set

Then they ask you "what method of lead should I use to shoot skeet?" Your answers should probably be: 1) Whatever method you shoot birds with, 2) Let's take a look and we'll work it out, and 3) Absolute technical sustained lead. Then they present themselves to shoot a couple of rounds with you, and they each have a Remington 1100 automatic field gun with a three quarter choke barrel, and are using 1 1/8 oz of number 5 nickel plated pigeon loads. Your responses should probably be: 1) What a nice outfit, 2) Have your barrel screw-choked and use lighter loads, 3) Your choking is wrong and your shells are illegal.

These are just a few examples to illustrate the importance of why any instructor/coach/helper should correctly ascertain each shooter's reasons for shooting, before making any suggestions. And don't ever forget to allow an insight into their practical and financial constraint to moderate your advice. The bottom line is: don't confuse your needs with theirs. If you're a casual field/target shooter and they want to be World Champion, don't send them off to buy a second-hand Miroku sporter like yours. However, even if you've just won the National High Gun and you sleep with your Perazzi under your pillow, if they just want to shoot a few clays when there's no hunting to be done, then a used Miroku sporter is just exactly what they need. And finally, make them aware of your assessment and the reasoning behind it, because occasionally you may misread a shooter, and sometimes they may have some other obscure reason for wanting to do it differently.

This month's Shooting Trivia Question: How many people have been "tinny" enough to win the National Skeet Championship without either shooting a possible in the qualifying event or having to shoot off afterwards? Mail your answer to Shooting Trivia, P.O. Box 265, Bairnsdale 3875, to arrive by 20-05-2002. The first correct answer drawn shall receive a free entry to this year's National Skeet Championship. The correct answer to March's STQ is: The four ACTA gun clubs whose name starts with the letter F are Foster, Finley, Frankston-Australia and Far West (The Forrest is by definition a T). The first correct answer drawn was submitted by Ron Cugley from Deniliquin in NSW, who wins a free entry to next year's National Pointscore Championship.

CONCENTRATION

Written by Frank Hoppe

When it comes to trapshooting, it has long been known that a major part of any shooter's success is derived from his mental capabilities. Even Yogi Berra recognised this fact when he stated that baseball is 90% mental and 50% physical. Yogi may have over-estimated the physical portion a bit, but his point is well taken. Much of our success in trapshooting depends on how well we handle the mental aspect of the game.

The mental aspect of the game begins with concentration. When I say "concentration", I refer to the ability of the mind to pay full attention to the task at hand, which in our case as trapshooters, is to do what is necessary mentally to break the next target or the next pair of targets. If our mind is not out in the field with our eyes as they look for the target to appear, the game can be much more difficult. Once we have mastered the fundamentals of the game and once we always have good control of the gun as we approach our targets, the only thing that could possibly make us miss a target is letting our mind wander from the task at hand.

If we try to work our mind too hard, like asking it to concentrate for an hour while we shoot the next 100 target event, it will fail us every time. You can't concentrate for an hour straight on one subject, no matter how much fun it is.

But if we ask the mind to work for us for just three or four seconds at a time, and then let it relax and think about anything that comes to mind, it will work for us hundreds of times consecutively without fail. But how do we do this? I don't want you to think there is some secret mind formula that will automatically turn you into the picture of concentration and perfection when it comes to shooting, but there is something you can practice to get your concentration up for each and every shot.

Like I said, it will take PRACTICE, but it will lead to better concentration and with better concentration, you will never miss a target because your mind was off on a coffee break.

By applying this simple method of concentration, you won't have the normal distractions that some shooters have. I'm speaking of the shooter who misses targets because there is someone behind them talking, or the losses that are attributed to cars driving by, planes land in front of you, or target boxes blowing across the field.

These distractions have nothing to do with your ability to break the next target unless you allow them to be distractions. With good concentration, the distractions that used to cost you targets will disappear.

When it is your turn to shoot and you have mounted your gun, prior to calling for the target you must trigger the concentration so that you are only focused on the task at hand, which is to first, see the target.

At this point, you say something to yourself, something like, "see the target", in order to trigger your concentration to the task at hand. If you practice this, you will become so good at avoiding distractions, that they will no longer be distractions. But like I said, it will take a little practice on your part, just like any other part of the game..

Trigger your concentration when you practice, when you participate in tournaments and when you shoot the league. Do it every time you mount the gun and soon, you will find that you never drop a target because your mind was wandering.

You will also find that you can develop the mental toughness to get you through those periods when your nerves are on edge. Your confidence will go up because when you are able to concentrate totally on the task at hand, you know you can break any target thrown.

Once you have mastered the ability to concentrate at will, not only will your distractions be a thing of the past, but you will also eliminate the need for excuses for missing targets. Remember, all good trapshooters talk to themselves. If you don't let your lips move, no one will ever know.

The Glen Innes "Golden Fleece"

Well known Northern NSW Clay Target Shooters, Barry and Helen Finch have grabbed national news and television headlines recently, with their award winning wool fleece.

From the ABC Rural Program Landline, to print, television and radio - they have been the talk of the Eastern States - and know doubt across Australia.

Glen Innes has been put on the map as far as wool is concerned - congratulations and may there be plenty more !!

THE term "golden fleece" has taken on a new meaning for Barry and Helen Finch of Legend, Glen Innes, after they won 1.29kg of gold bullion when their 11.7 micron fleece took the honours at the Zegna awards.

This year for the first time Ermenegildo Zegna, one of the biggest users of Australian superfine wools and sponsors of the annual awards for excellence in superfine wool production, presented the Vellus Aureum (Latin for golden fleece) trophy for the "ultimate" finewool fleece.

Helen and Barry Finch

Co-principal of Ermenegildo Zegna, award sponsors, Count Paolo Zegna announced the winners at the awards dinner held in Sydney last month (16.2.02).

"Through our trophies and through the work which is done every day to promote wool, we believe we can assure woolgrowers that they can count on a secure future for their product," Count Zegna said.

Mrs Finch said out of a possible 100 points, judges awarded the 1.29kg fleece 95.2 points - and while she doesn't know if it was the finest entry, she does know it was the "best of the finest".

The fleece was from a two-and-a-half-year-old shedded wether, one of about 150 housed wethers grown on Legend.

And while the Finches were sure the fleece was one of the best they had ever produced, they weren't sure about its micron as the animal had not been tested for about five months before the competition.

"The wether was 13.1 microns before he went into the shed," Mrs Finch said.

The housed operation, which began in September 2000 with the conversion of an old hay shed, is just a small part of the flock of 1700 run on the property with an adult average flock micron of 17.1.

Mrs Finch said they didn't think they'd actually win the trophy but decided to have a go anyway and they weren't disappointed - coming home with the fleece's weight in gold and a ram's horn sculpture by a world-renowned artist cast in bronze and gold plated.

"This has been one of Barry's ambitions - to get as fine as possible - but I have put the breaks on a little bit because they have got to look like sheep and have good constitutions and a bit of size," Mrs Finch said.

"He had been talking about putting them in a shed for years."

The housed sheep wear protective jackets and are fed twice a day with pellets, clover, feskew and phalaris.

Just days after winning the prestigious award the Finches topped the Newcastle sale with a bale of 1PP 13.3 micron wool which sold for 49,500 cents per kilogram. The 96kg bale sold to the Zegna company for $47,520. The shedded wool came from the same flock as the golden fleece winner.

South West Zone of the VCTA conducted their 2002 DTL carnival at the Noorat Clay Target Club on the 24th February. Some 65 shooters were in attendance with a noted sixteen juniors.

Competition begun at 10:05 am with the Handicap and after a lengthy shoot off of 159/159, JV Walsh was the winner.

The Pointscore resulted in the SW Zone President and VCTA Handicapper Murray Gruar taking the red/white/blue sash with 96/96. Sam Clifford deservedly won the coveted zone double barrel, with nineteen possibles, with 233/233.

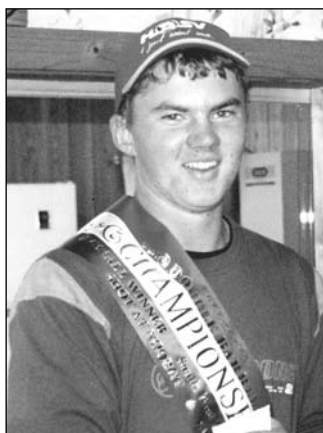

Finally the single barrel with a score of 32/32 was won by Geelong competitor Glen Coleman.

A fine day with several high scores then concluded with a presentation to all the placegetters. A thank you to all the sponsors: Road Con and G & G Hayden, and to an esteemed member of the Zone - Mr John (Jack) Matthey received a bestowment of life membership for his superfluous contribution for ACTA shooting as a sport and in all administration.

Wagin Saltbush Carnival 2002

8th, 9th & 10th February

All was in readiness for a magnificent weekend with shooters already having arrived from Geraldton, Bunbury, Esperance, Albany and Perth as well as all points in between, with many deciding to camp on the grounds. The carnival started on time, with great scores on the Corsivia targets being shot by 36 shooters during a hot Friday with a consistent south easterly blowing. Winner of the Agwest Machinery 50 DB Starter Event was the old stayer AA grader John Dohnt from Esperance with 74/74 and Gary Kelly runner up after a shortish shoot off. After a little refreshment most people availed themselves of a good meal in town supporting our good sponsors.

Saturday there was an even stronger South-Easterly blowing and becoming hotter. This didn't deter the shooters as they kept rolling in with 72 nominations for the day, the targets were set to regulation and some excellent score were shot first up. Eventual winner of the first event was A grader Steve Marsh from Kojonup taking out the sash for the 4 Farmers 25 DB Classic with 56/56 after a good shoot off with Lars Barger of WAGC.

The next event was the 50 DB CSBP Special with lots of possibilities coming home, eventually Robin Bailey triumphed with 107/107 and Mike Daden second with 106/107. John Rourke was 1st A with 50/51 and Malachi Humphrey a junior shot a magnificent 110/111 for second. Winning B grade needed a possible, which was ably done by Eric Hoggard with 69/70.

Last and most prestigious was the Primaries Wool Koonac Cup 25 Pointscore and once again many possible scores came in and after shooting off Eddie Toomey took the cup, sash and gold Koonac brooch and A grade with 93/93. Second again and getting AA grade was Mike Daden. Pleased as punch was Rob Nalder who won his 1st major grade trophy by taking C grade.

Sunday started after a sumptuous bacon and egg breakfast with 10 DB points cash divide 72 shooters nominating and a lot of possibilities were paid. Then on with the main event the Phil Becker Memorial Cup 100 DB (sponsored by the business people of Wagin) and at the end of the day 3 perfect scores were on the board. Robin Bailey, Mike Daden and John Rourke shooting off and after a great tussle Mike Daden was the winner with 201/201 and John Rourke 2nd with 200/201.

All together 87 separate shooters nominated for the weekend and high gun winners were: Ladies - Sharon Rayner 256/280; Veterans - Robin Bailey 276/280; Winchester Junior High Gun - Malachi Humphrey 269/280; Roy Alexander & Sons Intermediate High Gun - Tim Bower 270/280; Roy Alexander & Sons Overall High Gun - Mike Daden 279/280. What great scores - a top weekend was had by all. We would like to thank all our sponsors; the ladies who put on the tucker and any other helpers which made the weekend so successful.

New Requirements for Import Permits for Nonimmigrant Aliens Bringing Firearms and Ammunition Into the United States

Washington, DC — The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) and the United States Customs Service (Customs) announce new regulations affecting the purchase, possession, and importation of firearms and ammunition by nonimmigrant aliens entering the United States. The rules serve to implement the provisions of Public Law 105-277, passed by Congress in 1998 to amend the Gun Control Act of 1968.

Among other provisions relating to domestic sales of firearms and ammunition, the new regulations require nonimmigrant aliens who bring firearms or ammunition into the United States for hunting or sporting purposes to obtain an approved import permit from ATF prior to entering the U.S. The regulations are effective February 19, 2002.

In order to obtain an import permit, a nonimmigrant alien must file an ATF Form 6. The February 2002 revision of the form is currently available on the ATF internet web site at: www.atf.treas.gov. The form will also be available from any ATF field office, and the ATF Imports Branch (650 Massachusetts Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20226) in the near future. Background information and filing instructions are attached to each form. A nonimmigrant alien applying for an import permit must submit the Form 6 accompanied by documentation (such as a valid hunting license or permit lawfully issued in the United States or an invitation to a shooting match) which establishes that he falls within an exception to the general prohibition on nonimmigrant aliens possessing or receiving firearms or ammunition.

Upon receiving the Form 6, ATF's Firearms Import Branch in Washington, DC, examines it, and either approves the permit application or denies it. If the contemplated importation is approved, the permit is valid for 12 months from the date of approval. ATF then returns the approved permit and attached documentation to the applicant, along with a restriction stating that the specified firearm or ammunition must be taken out of the United States when the individual leave this country.

The ATF Form 6 and any other necessary documents must then be presented to Customs at the time of entry into the U.S. The Customs officer handling the importation will determine whether the entry is in order, and will then allow the nonimmigrant alien to bring the firearms into the U.S.

For further information, contact the ATF web site, www.atf.treas.gov for the full text of TD-ATF-471 (the rule establishing the regulation changes), for Questions and Answers on the new rules, and for copies of revised Forms 6.

Mansfield Clay Target Club

Neil Walsh Memorial 100 TGT D/Barrel C/Ship

Mansfield Clay Target Club in North East Victoria held their Neil Walsh Memorial 100 target Double Barrel Championship on Sunday 17th February. Neil was a popular member of the club before his death in a vehicle accident in 1997 and to win a sash for a grade win and a plaque for the overall win is an honor for club members.

Perfect conditions greeted 8 squads of local and travelling shooters on Sunday with no wind and a warm 32 degrees. After the first 50 target bracket it looked like it was going to be a close event with a number of shooters hitting the possible. It didn't stay this way though and after the gunpowder had settled at the end of 100 targets it was three local shooters, Trevor Newman, Rob Kirley and David Luelf all with a score of 99/100, who were forced into a shoot off for the overall win and first in AA grade. David was the first to drop out with a score of 113/115, leaving Trevor and Rob to do battle for first. Trevor was the next to go with 114/116 leaving Rob Kirley the well deserved winner on 115/116.

In A grade it was locals again with Phil Desmond and Tom Apps shooting off for the win, with Phil on 99/102 coming out the winner in front of Tom on 98/102 and Bill Forrest in third with 92/100.

B grade winner was Steve Campbell from Emerald, the only visiting shooter to go home with a win on 105/111 ahead of Ken Skinner in second on 104/111 and Anthony in third with 93/100.

C grade saw Shaun Kirley with a good score of 91/100 the winner ahead of Ray Barnes in second on 90/100 and club treasurer Shane Callahan on 89/100.

Rob Kirley, overall winner of the Neil Walsh Memorial 100 tgt double barrel being presented with trophies from Neil's father Mick Walsh.

Stage one of the new clubhouse being built.

Lawrence Apps is following in his fathers footsteps and shot extremely well to take home the Junior sash with 86/100 ahead of Shaeley Kirley on 84/100 and John Campbell in third on 67/100. Neil's mother and father, Mick and Phyllis Walsh were the sponsors of the event and were on hand to present sashes and prizes to the winners and placegetters. Mick and Phyllis have been valuable sponsors to the club over recent years and the club is proud to be able to hold the event in Neil's memory. The girls in the kitchen, Ronnie Hudswell, Michelle Kirley, Pam Kirley, Anne Skinner and Andrea Kirley were pleased to have a building to cook in at last (well half a building anyway) and performed their usual magic and supplied a delicious barbecue lunch and afternoon smoko for everyone.

The members of the club have been busy over recent months and after getting the concrete slab poured are now pleased to have the first stage of their new clubrooms erected. The new septic and toilets should be completed shortly and with the verandah from the old clubhouse, the only thing that we could salvage from the old grounds, going on the front of the new clubhouse, we hope to have the new clubhouse fully completed within the next 2 months. The club now has two DTL layouts operational with two excellent new trap houses built by Bill Forrest with a bit of help from other members.

After the closure of the old grounds in 2000 the future looked bleak for the Mansfield Clay Target Club, but after a lot of hard work by the committee and members and support from local businesses the club now looks set to prosper and grow. The Mansfield Club holds their shoots on the 3rd Sunday of each month and new and visiting members are made more than welcome.
