Section 9 – Privacy statement

In this statement “we”, “us” and “our” means Lloyd’s and ATC Insurance Solutions (ATC) as its agent.

We are bound by the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 (Cth) and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012. This sets out standards on the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information.

Our Privacy Policy is available at www.atcis.com.au or by calling us on the number below.

We, and our agents, need to collect, use and disclose your personal information in order to consider your application for insurance and to provide the cover you have chosen, administer the insurance and assess any claim. You can choose not to provide us with some of the details or all of your personal information, but this may affect our ability to provide the cover, administer the insurance or assess a claim.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties (and/or collect additional personal information about you from them) who assist us in providing the above services and some of these are likely to be overseas recipients in the United Kingdom. These parties which include our related entities, distributors, agents, insurers, claims investigators, assessors, lawyers, medical practitioners and health workers, and federal or state regulatory authorities, including Medicare Australia and Centrelink will only use the personal information for the purposes we provided it to them for (unless otherwise required by law). Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible and practicable to do so. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly (e.g. from your representatives or co-insureds). If you provide information for another person you represent to us that:

- you have the authority from them to do so and it is as if they provided it to us;
- you have made them aware that you will or may provide their personal information to us, the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties we disclose it to will use it for, and how they can access it. If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

You are entitled to access your information and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by us by contacting ATC on (03) 9258 1777 or write to us at the address given on page 1.
